Conditions of Sale.

1. All bids to be per Lot as numbered in the Catalogue.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and this Company will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

5. Terms Cash. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each Sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

6. All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule.

7. Autograph Letters, Documents, and Manuscripts are sold as they are without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.

8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers. We use all bids competitively and buy at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

Foreword

Mr. Hoe once told me, on his return from Europe, of a visit he had made to one of the great Libraries, and of his feelings of surprise and disgust at the utter lack of reverence and appreciation he found as shown in the want of care given to the great monuments of printing. The catalogue of this library was rich in the masterpieces of the early printers, and when he asked for them, volume after volume was brought to him covered with dust, with leaves stained and bindings broken and in every way proclaiming the effects of indifference and neglect. "This," he said, "confirms me in the conviction that those who love books should have them in custody and will take the best care of them." "If the great collections of the past had not been sold where would I have found my books?" To have kept unbroken the great library Mr. Hoe collected would no doubt have been a noble monument to his memory, but I am convinced that the remark I have quoted truly states his reason for the direction he gave in his will for the sale of his wonderful collections. He loved his books and wished them to pass after his death to those who would continue to cherish and care for them, and that they in their turn should transmit them to the booklovers of the future.

Mr. Hoe has often said to me that the love of books was born in him. As a very young man he invested his spare money in the purchase of a choice edition of some favorite author, or of books exemplifying the work of famous printers. Beginning with the issues of William Pickering, which were very attractive to him and always had a place in his library, as he grew older and his opportunities increased, the Aldines, Elzevirs, and the issues of the earlier printers claimed his attention, and his love of art led him to enter upon the purchase of the many beautiful specimens of the illuminated Books of Hours, Missals, and other Manuscript Books that form such a distinguished section of his library. He was always eager for English literature and spared neither time nor money in a tireless quest for the original editions of the authors who have made our language great. Few if any of the monuments of our literature will be found lacking, and all are represented by the finest copies that could be procured. He was a lover of fine bindings, and his library is rich in specimens of the work of all the great binders, ancient and modern. The processes of the binder's art were well known to him, and under his direction the Club Bindery produced work of an excellence not surpassed by any modern bindery.

As one of the founders and the first president of the Grolier Club he was of the greatest service in giving that institution its proper direction, and in guiding its activities in the channels that have proved so eminently successful.

Not only was Robert Hoe the greatest collector this country has produced, but he was a great student as well. An evening passed with him among his books could not fail to impress one with the wide extent of his reading. It was a constant surprise to me, who have been so many times with him examining some particular treasure, to find how intimately he was acquainted with the subject under discussion. The old reproach, so often undeservedly said of a collector, that he was one who never read his books, could not be applied to him.

Possessed of ample means, with knowledge and the true booklover's taste, this library he has brought together is, beyond all question, the finest this country has ever contained, and its final dispersion by auction the greatest of book sales. It is the way its creator wished it to go, but it may well be a cause for regret that many of its treasures may find their way back to the old world countries from which he brought them. Happy will be many a booklover to include among his treasures gems from the library of Robert Hoe, the possession of which will give his library distinction.

BEVERLY CHEW.

Bibliographical Notes

THE sale of the Robert Hoe Library will be an event of unprecedented importance in the annals of book sales. Less than a decade ago in a modest preface to his first "Catalogue of Books by English Authors who lived before the year 1700," Mr. Hoe wrote as follows: "Having commenced collecting when quite young, and with no definite plan my purchases have been such as only a progressive literary or artistic taste and knowledge suggested." A few years later the catalogue had grown to fifteen volumes recording over 14,000 titles of rare books, a number considerably less than appears in these catalogues.

A span of fifty years bridges the beginning and the end of Mr. Hoe's collecting. The entire period was marked by what was so happily designated in his own first preface as "progressive taste and knowledge," and no reader of these catalogues can fail to discern the remarkable range of Mr. Hoe's knowledge, the assiduity of his search for rare books in the intervals of a busy life devoted to other pursuits, and the unrelenting standard of quality which led him to discard any book, no matter how valuable when a better copy could be found. Probably no other collection in the world is in such uniformly superb condition, a fact of the highest importance to collectors.

The library is enriched by trophies of all the great sales of Mr. Hoe's half-century of collecting. Perhaps no such array of books of important provenance and high association interest was ever before assembled. Books with the arms of Kings and Queens; beautiful manuscripts antedating printing, and the earliest examples of printed books; books from Grolier's library in finest condition; autographs, manuscripts and letters; annotated books—the imagination kindles at these intimate reminders of the great and illustrious names of many periods and nations.

A word may be permitted concerning the system employed in preparing this catalogue. Circumstances required that the work should be done in the briefest possible time and with strict reference to the commercial aspects of the sale, purely bibliographical considerations being subordinated. Every important book has been carefully collated and the utmost care exercised to ensure accuracy of description.

Digitized by Google

The great size of the library made the task of dividing it into four parts, each representative of all classes of books, extremely difficult and tedious; and for the same reason it became necessary to use the utmost reticence in descriptions and notes. While it is not supposed that the catalogue is entirely free from errors, it is believed that it will be found far more accurate than the ordinary sales catalogue and will for many years prove to be a valuable work of reference.

To all collectors of rare books it may be pointed out that this sale affords opportunities which will seldom and in some instances never again occur. The great libraries of the world are rapidly securing the extremely rare books, where they always remain, and collectors will, to again use the words of Mr. Hoe's preface, be "seeking the unattainable."

It is impossible to present any adequate synopsis of the features of a library, of which nearly all the books would be "features" of a less important collection. We only offer a brief and imperfect classification and name a few of the many representative works of each class.

MANUSCRIPTS: The manuscripts form one of the richest and most interesting sections of the Library, numbering over 250 entries, of which about 80 are illuminated Horæ. They represent specimens of the various schools, styles and periods, and broadly illustrate the Art of Manuscript Illumination. Ranging from a Twelfth Century Codex of Bede's Commentaries and a remarkable Thirteenth Century Josephus, to the more modern caligraphers, as, for instance, Nicolas Jarry, they include examples of the schools of Hans Memling, Jehan Foucquet, Mantegna and Geoffroy Tory. Of special significance are the famous Pembroke Horæ, executed in England about 1440; the superb Missal of Charles VI; the Horæ made for Anne of Beaujeu, daughter of Louis XI; the Ovid executed for Anne de Bretagne, wife of Louis XII, and the Touranian Missal. Almost without exception they are in immaculate condition.

BINDINGS: As Mr. Hoe was particularly interested in the Art of Bookbinding, this department is naturally one of surpassing interest. Not only are all the great binders of recent times represented, but there is a remarkable array of the work of the earlier masters, many rich in the interest of past ownership and other associations.

Foremost in importance are the volumes bound for that distinguished lover of books Jean Grolier, the dates ranging between 1516 and 1552. There are several bindings of great historical interest, produced chiefly at Lyons and Paris, for Francis I, Henry the Dauphin, Henry II and Diana of Poictiers, while the remarkable Guicciardini, bound for Henry III of France, is of unusual importance. The famous collectors, Thomas Maioli and Demetrio Canevari, are represented, and there are a large number of Venetian bindings, many with the familiar geometrical designs, some with polychromatic strap-work. Richly ornamental bindings by Nicolas and Clovis Eve, Le Gascon and Monnier, are also worthy of special mention. A feature of the collection is the large number of bindings by, or attributed to, Padeloup and Derome, and books in Eighteenth Century red morocco with the Arms of Kings, Great Book Collectors, and "Femmes Bibliophiles." The English Bindings include a remarkable specimen of early deerskin (the "Bede" above mentioned), an example by Reynes, books bound for Queen Elizabeth, and Dudley, Earl of Leicester, Charles I and other English Kings and Queens, not forgetting that most original binder Roger Payne; there are also several charming Embroidered Bindings in fine state of preservation and a number of German Repoussé and Dutch Tortoise-shell bindings. Numerous beautiful examples of the delicate work of Bauzonnet, Trautz, Cuzin, Capé, Lortic, Chambolle-Duru, and others are to be found, while inlaid and mosaic specimens from the (Grolier) Club Bindery appear throughout the whole collection.

INCUNABULA: Pre-eminent among Printed Books is the Gutenberg Bible, the first book printed from movable type —probably the last vellum copy that will ever be offered for sale. The Catholicon, the second and only other known book printed by Gutenberg, is also in the collection, as well as examples from the presses of Fust and Schoeffer. From Mainz printing spread through Germany (Strasburg, Augsburg, Cologne, Nuremberg and other cities being well represented in the collection) to Italy, and examples are found from the presses of Ulrich Han and Sweynheim & Pannartz, including the Lactantius, the first known book printed in Italy (Subiaco).

There are no less than twelve books printed by Nicolas Jenson in his most beautiful type, six of which are on vellum, and attention should be called to the fact that this collection, which comprises over 150 Incunabula, contains sixteen examples printed on vellum. Mention should also be made of the first printed editions of Homer, Euclid and other Classics, the Lascaris, the first book printed in Greek, and that masterpiece of the Aldine Press—the Poliphili Hypnerotomachia of Francesco Colonna. Several of the splendid Chronicles and Romances issued by the early Paris presses are found here, including the only known copy of the Mediæval Romance, Cleriardus et Meliadice, on vellum, the famous Mer des Histoires of Verard, and the earliest known edition of the Romaunt de la Rose.

As will be seen from the catalogue, there is a remarkable collection of Printed Horæ, numbering more than 75 examples, including a beautiful specimen by Geoffroy Tory, all of which are in fine condition, mostly printed on vellum and many illuminated; also many books from the later Continental Presses, including a large number of Elzevirs, while the Collection of 465 Books of Emblems contains many of great rarity.

The Dutch cities, Antwerp and Bruges, are also represented, including a volume from the press of Colard Mansion, Caxton's master. There are four examples from England's first printer, William Caxton, including the only perfect copy known of Malory's Morte D'Arthur, in remarkably fine state of preservation. From Wynken de Worde there is a "Communycaycon" undescribed by bibliographers and the only known copy of Helyas, Knight of the Swanne, said to be the only book from this press on vellum. The library also contains two books by the unknown printer of St. Albans, including a fine copy of the Book of St. Albans—the first English book on Hawking and the first book in which the cuts were printed in colors—and the rare Nova Statuta printed by William Machlinia in 1482. From the press of Richard Pynson are the Chirche of euyll men and women, 1511, of which the only other known copy is in the Bodleian Library; the Froissart of Sir John Bourchier, 1525, and Lydgate's Historie of Troye, 1573.

EARLY ENGLISH LITERATURE: This is another most remarkable section of the Library and one which will appeal to all English-speaking people. Commencing with Caxton's Chaucer of 1477–78, we find the original private edition of Queen Elizabeth's Prayer Book of 1569, of which only one other copy is known; Sidney's Arcadia, 1590, and the rarest of Spenser's Works, including the Faerie Queene in the First edition. Shakespeare is represented by no less than fifteen quartos, including the Hamlet of 1611 and Troilus and Cressida, also a magnificent copy of Venus and Adonis in the original vellum, while there is a fine set of the Four Folios, as well as a second copy of the Second Folio, and three variations of the Third Folio. The rarest works of other contemporary Poets and Dramatists, as well as the Poets of the Restoration, are found, including Ben Jonson, Chapman, Shirley, Marlow, Middleton, Brathwaite, Skelton, Herrick, Suckling, Wycherley (with the author's autograph inscription), Dryden, Congreve, Defoe, Pope, and very many others. There are also George Herbert's The Temple (one of only two copies known without date), the Earl of Stirling's Recreations with the Muses, with portrait; the Earl of Surrey's Poems, the first edition of Walton's Angler, 1653, and two issues of the First Edition of Milton's Paradise Lost, and a great number of similar rarities.

LATER ENGLISH LITERATURE: All the favorite authors are here represented and mostly in the finest possible state. They include the First Edition of Gray's Elegy, a presentation copy in the original binding of Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield, and uncut copies of the Deserted Village and the Haunch of Venison; an uncut copy of the Kilmarnock Burns and a presentation copy of the Poems of 1793; four of the original productions of William Blake, including the Milton, of which only two other copies are known; the first edition of Keats' Endymion, with a letter from the poet to Fanny Brawne, and a series of original editions of Shelley, including the Queen Mab.

AMERICANA: The field of early Americana is fully covered, including the first and extremely rare editions of the four voyages of Vespucci, 1504; four editions of the Letter of Columbus, 1493; De Bry's Grand Voyages in Latin, 1590; early or first editions of Champlain, Peter Martyr, Richard Eden, Hakluyt and the Voyages of the English Navigators.

There is a remarkably fine copy of John Winthrop's Declaration between the English and the Narrowgansetts, 1645, from the first press in North America, of which only three other copies are known, all in public libraries. Smith's Virginia is on large paper with both portraits and the engraved title in the first state, and with the arms of James I and the Duchess of Richmond quartered on the binding. Of New York interest are the uncut copy of Denton's New York, the first New York Directory, and the New York Charter of 1719, printed by Bradford; Filson's Kentucky with the map in perfect condition, of which not more than six copies are known; Smith's Advertisement for Planters, 1631; Thomas' Pensilvania, 1628; Wood's New England's Prospect; Eliot's Indian Tracts; Franklin's Cato Major; an uncut copy of Mason's Pequot War, and others of equal importance.

In the later period will be found Longfellow's Outre-Mer, with the original wrappers preserved and an autograph letter from the author relating to it; Hawthorne's Fanshawe; Lowell's Pioneer; Bryant's Embargo; and the writings of Irving, Holmes, Poe, Whittier, Emerson and others, all first editions.

FRENCH BOOKS constitute in point of actual numbers the largest section of the whole library and number nearly 5,000 titles. There are a large number of first and other early Editions of the French Classical authors, while the beautiful Eighteenth Century Illustrated Books cannot fail to attract attention. As would naturally be expected from the fact that Mr. Hoe was a member of the Société des Amis des Livres, he was especially interested in modern French works. A large number of these books, as may be seen from the Catalogue, are Limited Editions printed on special paper, the plates in several states, while many contain the original Water-Color Drawings used for the production of the Illustrations. Moreover, they are almost all most sumptuously bound "in their redolent crushed levant."

AUTOGRAPHS AND MANUSCRIPTS: One of the letters from Robert Burns to "Clarinda" and the manuscripts of three poems, one unpublished; the manuscript of Scott's Life of Swift, and an important letter relating to Napoleon; a document signed by Oliver Cromwell; a full letter in the hand of Cardinal Richelieu; a letter from Sterne mentioning Tristram Shandy; a letter from Carlyle on the American Civil War; a letter from David Garrick and one from Horace Walpole; the signatures of Killigrew and Congreve; some remarkable manuscripts of Washington Irving, including extracts from Washington's Diary, the manuscript of his Life of Oliver Goldsmith and his revised copy for the 1853 edition of Knickerbocker's History of New York.

The above very imperfect summary includes a number of important works which do not appear in the first Catalogue. Part I comprises only about one-fourth of the library and it is proposed to hold three additional sales, the dates of which will be announced hereafter.

56. ALEXANDER (SIR WILLIAM, EARL OF STIRLING). Recreations with the Muses. By William, Earl of Stirline. Portrait by Marshall. Folio, light brown levant morocco, doublure of green morocco, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery. (A very slight repair to the bottom blank margin of portrait.)
London: Printed by Tho. Harper, 1637

* First Edition. Extremely rare with the portrait. Usually considered Marshall's masterpiece. It is said to have been engraved for presentation by the Earl to his friends and then destroyed. The above—a tall copy with some of the edges uncut—was formerly in the libraries of the Earl of Westmoreland and Thomas Jolley.

57. ALEXANDER (SIR WILLIAM, EARL OF STIRLING). Avrora. Containing the first fancies of the author's youth, William Alexander of Menstrie. Small 4to, brown levant morocco gilt, gilt edges, by Rivière.

59. ALLOT (ROBERT). Wits Theater of the Little World. Woodcut device on title, with the rare Errata leaf. 16mo, red morocco gilt, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery.

Printed by I. R. for N. L. 1599

* Probably the first edition. Dedicated to John Bodenham and printed for Nicholas Ling the Stationer. Herbert mentions an edition of 1598, but this is probably an error. There is little doubt that Allot, and not Bodenham, was the editor, for a copy of this edition in the British Museum contains an epistle in which Allot dedicates to Bodenham this "collection of the flowers of antiquities and histories."

60. ALLOT (ROBERT—Editor). Englands Parnassus: Or The Choysest Flowers of our Moderne Poets, with their Poeticall comparisons. Descriptions of Bewties, Personages, Castles, Pallaces, Mountaines, Groues, Seas, Springs, Riuers, &c. 12mo, A6–A8 misplaced by the binder. Orange levant morocco, back and sides covered with a floral design and studded with small dots, inside borders of the same character, with a panel of green levant, silk guards, gilt edges, in an orange levant morocco case, by Rivière.

Imprinted at London for N[icholas] L[ing] C[uthbert] B[urby] and T[homas] H[ayes], 1600.

* First Edition, with the two preliminary blank leaves. Edmund Malone's copy, with his autograph and manuscript corrections throughout; also four pages of verse "writ extempore," signed and dated "John Ward, 1673," and a manuscript index.

Valuable for its quotations from Shakespeare and his predecessors in English poetry, many of whom are known only by the quotations and references in this volume It is possible that the John Ward who was the former owner may have been the Vicar of Stratford, who left a manuscript diary of the years 1648–1679, containing a mention of Shakespeare and his two daughters, and who is the sole authority for the statement that the dramatist died from the effects of a merry making with Drayton and Ben Jonson.

61. M.CCCC.lxxxvi: followed by another leaf with the printer's device on the recto in red. The two blank leaves, a_1 and that in the middle of the volume supplied, the first evidently at an early date, fol. 51 has a slight strip of the front margin restored, and the lower blank margin of folio 60 is repaired, otherwise a REMARKABLY FINE COPY. Folio, brown morocco, with blind stamped decorations, gilt edges on the rough, by The Club Bindery, in a slip case. The original wooden boards covered with vellum and lined with leaves of a 15th century antiphonarium preserved.

* One of only two perfect copies of this—the First Edition, the other being in the Rylands Library, which also lacks the blank leaves. It is the first English book in which color printing was used; the third division, "Treatise on Heraldry," containing 117 woodcuts of shields printed in red, blue and black. The type of the chapter headings is identical with Caxton's type 3, and it is one of the two books from this press—the third to be set up in England, containing the printer's device.

* EDITIO PRINCEPS OF THE BIBLE. The remarkable nature and importance of this superlatively great book are such that a discursive comment would be unnecessary. Attention may, however, be drawn to a few of the salient features of the present example. PRINTED ON VELLUM of the finest quality, it is in remarkably clean and fresh condition, the bold gothic characters standing out with undiminished grandeur. Whereas all copies vary slightly, the above is one of the few known to exist with headings at the commencement of the Epistle of S. Jerome, and the first book of Genesis PRINTED IN RED, it being presumed that on account of the difficulty encountered in printing in a second color, this undertaking was discontinued. In the British Museum copy these spaces were left blank. The other chapter headings throughout are written in red in a contemporary gothic hand, thus preserving the symmetry of the page, while the beautiful illuminated initials and decorations, taken in conjunction with the antique and massive appearance of the binding, contribute to make this a truly magnificent example, if not one of the finest in existence. The two leaves, Fo. 269 and 640, which are in facsimile, constitute the only defects. (Hain 3031, Pellechet 2265, Hessels, page 170, No. 6, Proctor, No. 56.)

It has been suggested by Dr. Schwenke that 30 copies on vellum may have been originally printed; but of these less than a dozen are known to exist, many in imperfect condition. It is also true that most, if not all of the known copies are the property of public libraries or institutions where they will always remain. IT IS THEREFORE PROBABLE THAT NO OTHER OPPORTUNITY WILL EVER OCCUR TO OBTAIN A VELLUM COPY OF THIS MONUMENTAL WORK, THE FIRST IMPORTANT BOOK PRINTED FROM MOVABLE TYPE.

The present copy has the bookplate "Ex bibliotheca Maioratus Familiæ Nostitzianæ," dated 1774, and is from the Perkins and Ashburnham libraries, before which it was in the possession of the London bookseller, Nicol.

It will be observed that the portion chosen for the facsimile, which is the exact size of the original, contains the prophetic utterance in Job, Ch. XIX, verse 23.

* De Thou, the eminent French historian, statesman and bibliophile, employed a series of escutcheons on his books. The first his own arms, with interlaced monogram J. A. D. T. on back, secondly, the arms of his wife (Marie Barbancon) were added and cipher J. A. M., and after her death the arms of Gasparde de la Chastre, with cipher "J. A. G."

325. GIOVIO (PAOLO). Commentarii delle Cose de Turchi, et Andrea Gambini con gli fatti, et la vita di Scanderbeg. 8vo. Vinegia: Figliuoli di Aldo, 1541

* Old Italian binding in red morocco, gilt ornaments on the sides, with the medallion device of DEMETRIO CANEVARI, representing the chariot of the Sun, stamped on the centre of both covers, above it the title of the book printed in gold, gilt edges. In a morocco case. At the end is bound "I costumi, et i modi particolari de la vita de Turchi, descritti da M. Luigi Bassano." Roma: Blado, 1545.

326. GREGORIUS NAZIANZENUS. Orationes novem elegantissimæ. Gregorii Nysseni liber de Hominè, Græce. 8vo. Venetiis: Aldus, 1536

* An ancient Italian binding in dark brown morocco, central panels, with gilt ornaments, the author's name printed in gold capitals on the front cover, and I. CLEMENT on the lower copy (skilfully rebacked), silk ties. This volume was evidently bound for Jean Clement, professor of Greek at the University of Oxford, died at Malines 1572. From the J. P. F. Double collection, with book label. Reproduced in the illustrated catalogue of bookbindings published by the Burlington Fine Arts Club.

327. GUICCIARDINI (FRANCESCO). Historia di Italia di M. Francesco Guicciardini gentil 'huomo fiorentino. FIRST EDITION. Folio.
Fiorenza: appresso Lorenzo Torrentino, 1561

* Old French red morocco, gilt tooled borders on the sides composed of leaf-sprays, garlands, cherubim, fleur-de-lys, in compartments, and the initial H repeated at intervals; on the centre panel A FULL-LENGTH PORTRAIT OF KING HENRY III OF FRANCE, executed in a mosaic of morocco, following the true colors and form of his costume, the face and hands being in vellum in order that the flesh tint may be better reproduced, the arms of the king in the lower left corner: back gilt with fire-tongues and fleur-de-lys, gilt edges, by Nicolas Eve. In the finest condition; preserved in a morocco slip case.
A REMARKABLE EXAMPLE OF THE ART OF BOOKBINDING.

328. HELIODORUS. Æthiopicæ historiæ libri decem, nunc primum e Græco sermone in Latinum translati, Stanislao Warschewiczki Polono interprete. Adiectum est etiam Philippi Melanchthonis de ipso autore, & ac eiusdem coversione indicium, etc. Folio.

Basileae: per Ioannein Oporinum, 1552

* Contemporary French binding in dark brown calf, the sides covered with a geometrical design of interlaced bands and fleurons in mosaic of black and grey outlined in gold, on a thickly studded ground of gold dots. On the centre of the front cover the title of the work in gold capitals, and lower down the name "Io. GROLIERII ET AMICORVM," and in the centre of the back cover Grolier's motto, "PORTIO MEA DOMINE SIT IN TERRA VIVENTIVM"; gilt fleur-de-lis on the panels of the back, gilt edges. Preserved in a morocco case, with glass.

A magnificent specimen, probably one of the finest Grolier bindings in existence, on account of its design and remarkable preservation. From the Dent, Heber(?), Libri, Double, Joseph Techener & Léon Techener libraries. Le Roux de Lincy, No. 130.

[See Illustration.]

329. HESIODUS. Opera, græce et latine. Adjectis etiam ijsdem latino carmine elegantis. versis, & Genealogiæ deorum a Pylade Brixiano. Item Joannis Grammatici Scholia græca in eadem omnia Hesiodi opera. 8vo.

Basileae [n. d., but ca. 1543]

* Contemporary calf, a tree, with the legend "NOLI ALTUM SAPERE," stamped in gold on the centre of both covers (rebacked). As the device is that of the Estiennes, it is to be presumed that the volume was bound for one of them, and in all probability for Henry Estienne.

330. HIERONYMUS (S.). Epistolæ selectæ, et in libros tres distributæ, opera Petri Canisii. Ruled throughout with red ink. 16mo. Parisiis: apud S. & R. Nivelle, 1588

* Old French red morocco, the sides and back tooled and gilt with floral ovals, within a border of leaf-sprays, on the centre of the front cover an escutcheon "a la fasce chargée de trois fleur-de-lis," and on that of the back cover a natural fleur-de-lis surrounded by the motto "Expectata non eluded," gilt edges, probably by CLOVIS EVE. In a morocco slip case.

Probably bound for MARIE-MARGUERITE DE VALOIS DE SAINT-REMY, daughter of Henry de Saint-Remy, natural son of King Henry III of France. See Guigard, "Armorial du Bibliophile."

331. JUSTINE MARTYR. Les Evvres De sainct Iustin Philosophe & Martyr, mises de Grec. en langage François, par Ian De Maumont: Auec table des matieres les plus dignes. Ruled throughout in red. Folio. Paris: M. Vascoran, 1559

* Contemporary calf, the sides and back covered with an elaborate design formed by interlacing strap-work, painted black and grey, the intervening spaces studded with dots, with inscription "Lois de Ste Mavre Marquis de Nelle" on upper cover, and "Conte de Iovgni et de Laval" on lower cover. In a morocco case.

A fine specimen from a collection, examples of which are of great rarity. The Marquis de Nelle was given as a hostage to Queen Elizabeth in 1559, and died in Paris in 1572.

389. [BLAKE (WILLIAM),] Poetical Sketches. By W. B. FIRST EDITION. Full citron levant morocco, inlaid border, with ornamental corner pieces on each side, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery. London: Printed in the Year 1783

* PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR, with autograph inscription on the title "To Charles Tulk, Esq., from William Blake." The poems contained in this volume were composed between the age of 11 and 20 and were privately printed by the help of friends who, according to Gilchrist, presented the whole edition to the Poet.

390. BLAKE (WILLIAM). SONGS OF INNOCENCE. 17 leaves containing designs and text with marginal embellishments, colored by hand. 8vo, original calf, with centre ornament on each side, in case.

The Author and Printer, William Blake, 1789

* This charming volume—containing some of Blake's most beautiful poems—was the first book in which the poet revealed his genius to the world. The method he employed was—as is generally known—a species of engraving, in relief, of both words and designs, which were colored by the hand of the artist himself. The designs were engraved on copper plates and were for the sake of economy entirely wiped off so that the plates might be used for other books—hence the great rarity of these remarkable productions. The coloring of the present copy is most delicate pale blue and light green predominating.

As the arrangement of the plates differs in some copies, we give them in their order:

Page 1. Blank, 2. Frontispiece, "The Piper," 3. Title "Songs of Innocence," as above, 4. Blank, 5. Introduction, "Piping down the valleys Wild," etc., 6. Blank, 7. The Shepherd, 8 and 9. The Little Black Boy, 10. The Voice of the Ancient Bard, 11 and 12. A Cradle Song, 13. The Blossom, 14 and 15. The Little Girl Lost, 15 and 16. The Little Girl Found, 17. The Lamb, 18. Nurses' Song, 19. Infant Joy, 20. On Another's Sorrow, 21. The Little Boy Lost, 22. The Little Boy Found, 23. The Chimney Sweeper, 24 and 25. Spring, 26. The Schoolboy, 27. The Laughing Song, 28. A Dream, 29. Holy Thursday, 30. The Divine Image, 31 and 32. The Echoing Green, 33. Night.

Formerly in the possession of John Linnell. A note by Mr. Hoe says, "I paid £4. 4. 0. for this book. R. H."

391. BLAKE (WILLIAM). THE MARRIAGE OF HEAVEN AND HELL. 24 engraved pages. Royal 8vo (6 in. x 4 in.), contemporary tree calf gilt. [1790]

* Considered by Gilchrist the most curious and significant book ever issued by Blake, the form of which he attributed to Lavater's Aphorisms. See lot 396. THE EXCESSIVELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, very few copies of which were struck off and these also colored by Blake himself. The coloring is exceedingly delicate, blue and green predominating.

The arrangement of the plates is as follows: 1. Title-page, 2. Blank, 3. The Argument, 4. Blank, 5. "As a new heaven is begun" (two drawings on this page), 6. The voice of the Devil (one drawing), 7–8. "Those who restrain desire" (one drawing), 8-9. A Memorable Fancy, "As I was walking among the fires of hell." 9–12. Proverbs of Hell, one drawing. 13. "The ancient Poets," etc. (two drawings). 14–15. A Memorable Fancy, "The Prophets Isaiah and Ezekiel." 16. "The ancient tradition," etc. (one drawing). 17. A Memorable Fancy, "I was in a Printing house in Hell" (one drawing). 18–19. "The Giants who formed this world" (one drawing). 19–22. A Memorable Fancy, "An Angel came to me" (one drawing). 23–24. "I have always found," etc. (one drawing. 24–26. A Memorable Fancy, "Once I saw a Devil" (one drawing). 27–29. A Song of Liberty. 30. Blank.

392. BLAKE (WILLIAM). SONGS OF EXPERIENCE, 1794. The Author and Printer, W. Blake. ORIGINAL EDITION. 25 plates colored by the Artist. 8vo, full maroon morocco, richly ornamented sides, gilt edges. 1794

*The above is a companion volume to the "Songs of Innocence," produced by Blake shortly after his "America." According to Mr. Muir's facsimile this book should have 27 plates, the present copy wanting the frontispiece and the "Vow of Ancient Bard."

The plates are arranged as follows, by leaves, the versos being blank:

1. Title-page. 2. Introduction. 3. Earth's Answer. 4. The Clod & the Pebble. 5. The Chimney Sweep. 6. A Poison Tree. 7. Infant Sorrow. 8. The Tyger. 9. The Fly. 10. The Sick Rose. 11. The Human Abstract. 12. A Little Girl Lost. 13–14. A Little Girl Lost. 14–15. The Little Girl Found, (found in "Songs of Innocence"). 16. The Garden of Love. 17. The Angel. 18. My Pretty Rose Tree, Ah! Sunflower, and The Lilly. 19. A Little Boy Lost. 20. To Tirzah. 21. London. 22. The Little Vagabond. 23. Holy Thursday. 24. Nurses Song, "when the voices of children are heard on the green, And whisperings are in the dale" (a different version from that in "Songs of Innocence"). 25. The School Boy, "I love to rise in a summer morn."

393. BLAKE (WILLIAM). MILTON: A POEM, IN 12 BOOKS. THE AUTHOR & PRINTER, W. BLAKE, 1804. "To Justify the Ways of God to Man." 45 pages, 10 of which are whole page plates, 13 partly illustrated, the rest consisting of text with background in colors. 4to, original calf (back skilfully repaired), in case. 1804

*THE ORIGINAL EDITION OF THE RAREST OF ALL BLAKE'S PRODUCTIONS. Only two other copies—in the British Museum and the Lenox Library—are recorded, and it was unknown to Gilchrist, as well as to W. M. Rossetti, who compiled the list in the "Life of Blake."

The present example is said to be the finest of the three in existence, an opinion supported by Mr. Muir, who regarded the above superior to both the others. It exhibits a totally different scheme of color, most noticeable in the larger plates, which shows that Blake produced each separately as a distinct artistic effort, while the richly toned plates in which the figures are modelled in beautiful relief are indications of the artist's skill. The above copy is similar as regards contents to that in the British Museum, though the coloring of the latter is described as "dark and indistinct." The Lenox example has five leaves not in the other two, but wants one leaf which is found in both the others. A description of the above in the handwriting of Mr. Hoe, also valuable data relating to the British Museum copy, is laid in.

London: Printed by T. Bensley, 1808

396. BLAKE (WILLIAM). LAVATER (JOHN CASPER). Aphorisms on Man. Translated from the Original Manuscript. Frontispiece (etc.). 1788

* WILLIAM BLAKE'S OWN COPY WITH NUMEROUS MS. ANNOTATIONS THROUGHOUT IN HIS AUTOGRAPH, and his name on the title and on the first page. Written chiefly in the margins of no less than 121 pages (out of 224), these comments are apparently jotted down, to use his own words, "to rectify what I think false in a book I love so much and approve it generally." while, inadvertently, they give us a near view of Blake in his ordinary occupations at this period. It seems to have set him composing aphorisms—"I love laughing," "All finery is a sign of littleness," "Let men do their duty and the women will be such wonders," and similar phrases, while his comments on lying, love of one's enemies, superstition, money, etc., are quite characteristic. There are also three pages of original notes and emendations at the end. This well-worn volume—which is fully described in Gilchrist's Life of Blake, a chapter in the first volume being entirely devoted to it—forms one of the most interesting if not important mementos of the great artist-poet.

397. BLAKE (WILLIAM). A. L. S., 3 pp., small 4to, n. p., 27 Nov., 1805. To Mr. Hayley.

Imprimé a Bruges par Colard Mansion, 1476

* First French Edition. The First Book with a date printed by Colard Mansion at Bruges, and extremely rare. Of Caxton's connection and business relation with Colard Mansion, Mr. Blades has spoken at length; and this fact adds considerable interest and value to this work in the eyes of the collector.

Large blank spaces are left at the head of each book for miniatures. This copy has finely painted miniatures: to Book III, Poverty and Riches; Book V, Antiochus and Seleuchus; Book VIII, figure of Boccaccio reclining on a bed with Petrarch standing by; and Book IX, the execution of the infamous Queen Brunechilde. These four miniatures are surrounded by exquisitely painted and illuminated borders of flower scrolls.

Paris: Auguste Aubry, 1869

* ONE OF ONLY 6 COPIES PRINTED ON VELLUM.

506. BRIGHT (TIMOTHY). A Treatise of Melancholie. Containing the causes thereof, & reasons of the strange effects it worketh in our minds and bodies: with the phisicke cure, and spirituall consolation for such as haue thereto ad ioyned an afflicted conscience, &c. By T. Bright Doctor of Phisicke. 16mo, light brown levant morocco, gilt and blind tooled back and sides, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery. Imprinted at London by Thomas Vautrollier, 1586

* This volume is supposed to have suggested the Anatomy of Melancholy to Burton while the author was known as the founder of modern shorthand. It is probably one of the first books printed by Vautrollier on his return from Scotland, where he had fled from the Star Chamber. Blades suggests that Shakespeare learned printing in Vautrollier's office.

507. BRITISH CLASSICS. The British Classics. Engraved titles to each volume, and over 100 plates and portraits by and after the most famous engravers and painters, all in proof state, before the lettering on the plate. 24 vols. post 8vo, blue levant morocco, gilt backs, gilt tops, uncut, by Allo.

London: Printed by C. Whittingham. Published by John Sharpe, 1804[–1803–1810].

Lond. 1830

* Large Paper copy, with India proof impressions of the sixty plates after Bartlett, and numerous woodcuts.

510. BRODERICK (THOMAS). Historia Sacra: or the Holy History: giving An Exact and Comprehensive Account Of all the Feasts and Fasts of the Church of England. Portrait of the author by W. Sherwin. EXTRA-ILLUSTRATED by the insertion of fifty plates—The Gunpowder Plot, Execution of Charles I, etc. 8vo.

London: John Wyat, 1705

* Old English blue morocco, gilt back, sides tooled in gold to an unusual geometrical pattern in compartments, introducing the rose, thistle and tulip. (An unusual specimen of the period.)

511. BROOKE (FULKE-GREVILLE, LORD). Certaine Learned and Elegant Workes of the Right Honorable Fvlke Lord Brooke, Written in his Youth, and familiar Exercise with Sir Philip Sidney. Folio, citron levant morocco, inlays of black and white and broad borders of green in mosaic, richly gilt, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery, with two bookplates of Henry Franceys inserted.

London: Printed by E. P. for Henry Seyle, 1633

* A Large Paper copy of the First Edition, measuring 10½ x 6¾ in. As usual, pages from 1 to 23 are missing, in fact, no copy is known with them, for it is believed they contained a poem "Of Religion," which was suppressed by order of Abp. Laud, and which did not appear again until 1670.

512. [BROOKE (FULKE-GREVILLE, LORD).] The Five Yeares of King Iames, or, The Condition of the State of England, and the Relation it had to other Provinces. Written by Sr Foulk Grevill, late Lord Brook. Small 4to, calf, gilt top, uncut edges, by Zaehnsdorf (margins strengthened).

London: Printed for W. R., 1643

* Although attributed to Lord Brooke, this book, republished with additions and entitled "The First Fourteen Years," etc., is believed to be the work of some partisan Presbyterian.

513. BROUGHAM (HENRY PETER, LORD). Historical Sketches of Statesmen who flourished in the time of George III., to which is added, Remarks on Party, and an Appendix. Numerous portraits. 3 vols. royal 8vo, cloth, uncut.

514. BROUGHTON (HUGH). A Concent of Scripture. Engraved title, maps and plates on copper. Small 4to, red levant morocco gilt, gilt edges, by the Club Bindery.

[Colophon] Imprinted at London for Gabriell Simson and William White [1588 or 1589].

* THE FIRST EDITION AND TRE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ENGLAND WITH COPPERPLATE ILLUSTRATIONS, with the extra leaf "To the Reader" not included in the sheet signatures. Watt gives the date 1588, the British Museum Catalogue 1590, the Huth Catalogue and Lowndes, 1596. There are forty leaves including the engraved title and six plates, unsigned, but said to have been executed by William Rogers.

At the end of the book is a folded map very seldom found: "A mapp of the north part [of Judea] from the equinotical," etc. (slightly worn in one fold and backed with silk).

515. BROUGHTON (HUGH). A Concent of Scripture. Small contemporary English calf gilt, gilt on rough edges. [1591 or 1592] but sine nota.

* PRINTED ON VELLUM. PROBABLY THE DEDICATION COPY TO QUEEN ELIZABETH, as the initial "T" of the Dedication to the Queen is composed of the arms of the second Earl of Bedford. In the British Museum copy (paper) is an ordinary decorated woodcut initial. This copy has 37 leaves of letterpress, no colophon, an engraved title, a folded map with both hemispheres and four plates, two of which are signed W. R.(ogers).

We know of only three copies printed on vellum, of which Mr. Hoe's library contains two and the third is in the Bodleian Library.

POEMS,

CHIEFLY IN THE

SCOTTISH DIALECT,

BY

ROBERT BURNS.

THE Simple Bard, unbroke by rules of Art,
He pours the wild effusions of the heart:
And if inspir'd, 'tis Nature's pow'rful fire;
Her's all the melting thrill, and her's the kindling fire.

Kilmarnock: Printed for John Wilson, M,DCC,LXXXVI [1786].

* THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST OR KILMARNOCK EDITION in remarkable state. It measures 8 15/16 in. x 5½ in., while an entirely uncut copy measures only 1/16 of an inch less.

The volume is accompanied by a TWO-PAGE 8vo. AUTOGRAPH LETTER BY BURNS written to Captain Hamilton of Dumfries, from whom Burns had borrowed money. It reads: "Sir. It is even so.—You are the only person in Dumfries to whom (this has been erased by the writer), or in the word, to whom I have run in debt & I took the freedom with you, because I believed, & do still believe that I may do it with more impunity as to my feelings than any other person almost that I ever met with.—I will settle with you soon; & I assure you, Sir, it is with infinite pain that I have transgressed on your goodness. The unlucky fact for me is that about the beginning of these disastrous times, in a moment of imprudence I lent my name to a friend, who has since been unfortunate: & I of course I had a sum to pay which my very limited income & large family could ill afford.—God forbid, Sir, that any thing should ever distress you as much as writing this car has done me.

With the sincerest gratitude & most respectful esteem——
I have the honor to be,
Sir
your very humble servt.
ROBT. BURNS."

red mosaic, gilt edges, by "E. S. Aurifex" [Sir Edward Sullivan]. Belfast: Printed and sold by William Magee, 1790

* The misprints in the last stanza of the poem, "To a Haggis," are repeated, page 187.

RARE EDITION.

563. BURNS (ROBERT). Poems, chiefly in the Scottish Dialect. The second edition, considerably enlarged. 2 vols. in 1. 8vo, ORIGINAL CALF, EDGES UNCUT, preserved in case.

Edinburgh: Printed for T. Cadell, 1793

* PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR, WITH INSCRIPTION ON HALF-TITLE IN HIS AUTOGRAPH:—Mr. White will accept of this Book as a mark of the most sincere Friendship from a man who has ever had too much respect from his Friends & too much contempt for his enemies, to flatter either one or the other.—The Author."

In the back of the book is pasted a folio sheet containing stanzas "To the Memory of Robert Burns. By T. White, author of St. Guerdun's Well," dated Dumfries, 1796.

The names denoted by a star or stars are filled in by a contemporary hand, possibly the recipient: while on the blank leaves in middle of volume, is written in the same hand, a transcript of a song by Burns from the Scots Musical Museum.

564. BURNS (ROBERT). Poems chiefly in the Scottish Dialect. A new edition, considerably enlarged. Portrait of Burns by Beugo after Nasmyth. 2 vols. 8vo, full crimson crushed levant morocco, ornate backs, broad dentelle borders, TOP EDGES GILT ON THE ROUGH, ALL OTHER EDGES ENTIRELY UNCUT, by Rivière. Edinburgh: Printed for T. Cadell, 1798

565. BURNS (ROBERT). Poems ascribed to Robert Burns, the Ayrshire Bard, not contained in any edition of his works, hitherto published. 8vo, full green crushed levant morocco gilt top, uncut, by The Club Bindery. (Several margins skilfully repaired.)

Glasgow: Printed by Chapman and Lang, 1801

* FIRST ISSUE, with the Epigram on p. 3 "Highland pride, Highland scab," etc., cancelled after publication.

566. [BURNS (ROBERT).] Collins (William). The Poetical Works of Mr. William Collins. With Memoirs of the Author; and Observations on His Genius and Writings. By J. Langhorne. 12mo, old half calf, preserved in case.

London: Printed for T. Beckey, 1765

* AUTOGRAPH PRESENTATION COPY FROM ROBERT BURNS, with inscription (in pencil) on fly-leaf "To Jean Lorimer, a small, but sincere mark of friendship from Robt. Burns."

Autograph of "Jane Lorimer, 1794," beneath, also poem "Ode to Mercy" on fly-leaf facing title in the same hand.

On the first fly-leaf IN THE AUTOGRAPH OF R. BURNS IS PENCILLED A TEN LINE POEM:

"His royal visage seamed with many a scar
That Caledonian reared his martial form
Who led the tyrant-quelling war
Where Bannockburn's ensanguined (flood)
Swelled with the mingling hostile blood
Saw Harold's myriads struck with deep dismay
And Scotia's troop of brothers win their way"

and three other lines. Some words are very indistinct.

567. BURNS (ROBERT). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT OF A POEM, 14 lines on the first page of a quarto sheet, addressed to Robert Graham, Edinburgh (seal cut from second sheet, folds worn and small blank portion of same missing). Ellisland, Aug. 10, 1789, signed "Robt. Burns"

* A poetical letter of thanks for favors rendered:

"I call no Goddess to inspire my strains
A fabled Muse may suit a Bard that feigns
'Friend of my life!' my ardent spirit burns
And all the tribute of my heart returns" etc.

568. BURNS (ROBERT). ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT POEM. SIX VERSES ON BOTH SIDES OF A FOLIO SHEET, unsigned, numbered by Burns "1 to 6."

* Written in the same metre as his famous song "A man's a man for a' that."

"To haughty Lordlings shall we jouk
And it against the law that:
For even a Lord may be a gowk
Tho sprung frae kings & a' that.
For a' that & a' that
Here's Heron yet for a' that
A lord may be a lousy loon,
Wi' ribband, star & a' that.
If we are to be knaves & fools,
And bought & sauld & a' that,
A truant callan frae the schools
It's ne'er be said did a' that
For a' that & a' that" etc.

569. BURNS (ROBERT). A. L. S. signed "R. B." 1 p. 4to, with leaf of address, to Mrs. Riddell, no place, 1796 (the year of his death).

* A letter criticising verses submitted to him: "A line that in an ordinary mediocre production might pass, not only without censure, but with applause, in a brilliant composition glares in all its native halting inferiority. The last line of the second stanza I dislike most. I(f) you cannot mend it (I cannot, after beating my brains to pap) I would almost leave out the whole stanza."

570. BURNS (ROBERT). AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPTS OF TWO POEMS (THE SECOND PROBABLY UNPUBLISHED), unsigned, written on three pages small folio, the second sheet addressed to Wm. Stewart, Factor, Closeburn Castle. (Seal cut out and leaf of address slightly worn in the folds.)

* The first poem is entitled "A Scots Love Song—Tune Banks o' Banna," three verses, with a fourth (in another hand) added at the side of the sheet. The second (probably unpublished) is called "A New Song—From an old Story," commencing "The night it was a holy night," two verses of eight lines each, to the tune of "Wat ye what I met yestreen." One of the verses of the first begins:—

"The Kirk & State may join & tell,
To do sic things I mauna
The Kirk & State may gae to H——
And I shall gae to Anna
She is the sunshine o' my e'e
To live but her I canna
Had I on earth but wishes three,
The first should be, My Anna!"

571. [BURNS (ROBERT).] A. L. S., 4 pp. 4to, 'Saturday Eve,'' no date, from Agnes M'Lehose to Robert Burns, signed ''Clarinda.''

* One of the letters from the correspondence of Sylvander and Clarinda (See No. 571), accompanied by a letter from a descendant of Burns, also named ''Robert Burns,'' 1 p. 4to, Dumfries, 1837, mentioning that he had seen Clarinda in 1802, describing her as ''about 30 years of age, short in stature, inclined to be corpulent and red-faced.''

572. BURNS (ROBERT). A. L. S. ''Sylvander,'' 2 pp. folio, no date, ''Saturday noon.''

* One of the letters from the correspondence between Burns and Clarinda (Mrs. Agnes M'Lehose) in which Burns signs himself ''Sylvander.'' Burns was then in Edinburgh arranging with Creech for the issue of the 1787 edition of his poems.

The letter begins abruptly without salutation:

''Some days, some nights, nay some hours, like the 'ten righteous persons in Sodom' save the rest of the tiresome, vapid, miserable months and years of life—One of these hours my dear Clarinda blesst me with yesternight . . . My favorite feature in Milton's Satan is, his manly fortitude in supporting what cannot be remedied—in short the wild broken fragments of a noble exalted mind in ruins. I mean no more by saying he was a favorite hero of mine.

I mention'd to you my letter to Dr. Moore, giving an account of my life: it is truth, every word of it; and will give you the just idea of a man whom you have honor'd with your friendship,'' etc.

573. BURTON (JOHN HILL). The Book-Hunter, etc. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, half morocco, uncut. Edinburgh, 1862

574. BURTON (ROBERT). The Anatomy of Melancholy. What it is, with all the kinds causes, symptomes, prognostickes, & seuerall cures of it. In three Partitions, with their severall Sections, members & subsections. Philosophically, Medicinally, Historically, opened & cut vp. By Democritus Junior. With a Satyricall Preface, conducing to the following Discourse. The thirde Edition, corrected and augmented by the Author. Title within a woodcut border, with portrait of the author, by Le Blon. Small folio, brown levant morocco, gilt back and edges, by Chambolle-Duru.

Oxford: Printed for Henry Cripps, 1628

* The engraved title-page containing portrait of the author first appeared in this edition. Burton constantly made additions to the different editions of the ''Anatomy'' until that of 1651, which gives the work complete.

575. BURTON (ROBERT). The Anatomy of Melancholy, &c. (same title, retouched throughout, as in the edition of 1628, excepting that ''The Seuenth Edition'' is substituted for ''The thirde Edition,'' with the following imprint): London: Printed for H. Cripps, 1660. Engraved title in compartments by C. Le Blon. Folio, brown levant morocco, gilt panels, gilt edges, by Bedford. London, 1660

641. CARLYLE (THOMAS). A. L. S., 4 pp. 12mo, Seaton, Devonshire, 27 March, 1865. To John R. Thompson.

*A REMARKABLE LETTER FROM CARLYLE ON THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR. "Last night your account of Charlestown was read to her company by the Lady of this house and tragically interesting we all found it. My expectation is, and that of most people whom I see that the 'Conquest of the South' is no whit nearer than ever; nay, my own private conjecture is that if perhaps Gen. Lee were on the field (and no longer in a city) with his Army, and happened to have (which I am assured is the fact) something of Strategic Faculty and actual knowledge of campaigning,—he might work such woes on those Yankee Gentlemen as would be miraculous to the Editorial mind. Generals are not to be made by clapping cocked hats on them, and 'Creation' objects to be 'whipped' by a War-ministry of Abe Editors. You have a boundless extent of territory for battlefield; a ditto of Nescience on the part of your enemies; unless you yourselves lose heart, it has always seemed to me and still seems, their enterprise is impossible. Alas, alas, I never heard of such a war in all my reading, I believe in the annals of the Human Species there was never such another."

642. CARLYLE (THOMAS). A. L. S., 2 pp. 8vo, Chelsea, 16 Sept., 1854.

* The letter requests his correspondent to enquire the meaning of a Latin word, and refers to St. Elizabeth.

London: Printed for Benjamin Tooke, 1683

* THE RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the misreading "Edward" for Edmund Spencer on the title. The volume was edited by Izaak Walton, who also wrote the preface, and it has sometimes been suggested that Walton himself was the author, as nothing is known of Chalkhill.

Thomas Jolley's copy, with his bookplate.

681. CHALKHILL (JOHN). Thealma and Clearchus. A Pastoral History, In smooth and easie Verse. Written long since, By John Chalkhill, Esq; An Acquaintant and Friend of Edmund Spencer. 12mo, brown levant morocco gilt, gilt edges, by F. Bedford (bottom margin of sig. B5 restored). London: Printed for Benjamin Tooke, 1683 blue levant, blue silk linings, gilt edges, by Lortic. In brown morocco case.

A Paris: Chez Clavde De Monstr'oeil, tenant sa boutique en le Cour du Palais, au nom de Iesus. Avec Privilege Dv Roy [1603].

* THE EXTREMELY RARE FIRST ISSUE OF THE NARRATIVE OF CHAMPLAIN'S FIRST EXPEDITION TO CANADA, ascent of the St. Lawrence, and choosing the site for the city of Quebec. Only four other perfect copies are known, and the only recorded auction sale of the first issue was in 1907, when a smaller copy was bought for the library of the late E. Dwight Church for $2,900. The present copy is in perfect state with ample margins, and measures 6¼ x 3¾ inches.

There are a few trifling differences, of bibliographical interest, between the first and second issues, which are noted for the information of collectors.

The word "Cour" in the imprint of the first issue is so spelled.

The first word of the first line of folio 33 is "les" not "Lees," as in the second issue.

Pages 27, 28 and 30 are numbered 29, 27 and 29. (In one other instance there is a notice that folio 30 is wrongly numbered 29, but the other errors of pagination seem to have been corrected.)

685. CHAMPLAIN (SAMUEL DE). Les Voyages. 3 folding plates, 8 folding maps, 13 other small maps and plates and a woodcut in the text. 4to, full citron crushed levant morocco, sides and back richly gilt tooled, with scroll and foliage design and other artistic ornaments; doublure of blue morocco with broad gilt tooled scroll and foliage borders, blue silk ends, gilt edges, by Lortic.

Paris: Jean Berjon, 1613

* FIRST EDITION, with 52 additional pages containing a fourth voyage (1613) not mentioned in the Index. The volume deals very fully with the natural history, soil and products of the country, manners and customs of the Indians. The large folding-map facing page 1 gives the coast line of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and New England, with approximate correctness, while the map facing page 160 is the first of that coast in which any attempt was made to lay down astronomical positions, and is rarely found with the work.

686. CHAPELAIN (JEAN). La Pucelle, ou la France delivrée. Poëme heroïque. Engraved title and 12 copper-plates. 12mo, full red crushed levant morocco, gilt tooled inside borders, by Trautz-Bauzonnet, entirely uncut.

London: Printed by T. S. for Iohn Budgde, 1613

* A PRESENTATION COPY INSCRIBED "For Inigo Jones from his true ffriende, Geo: Chapman," having the autographs of both on the verso of the first title.

Although the second part, "The Fvneralls," etc., has a title dated 1613 and separate signatures, the reading of the first title sufficiently proves that the two parts were meant to be incorporated. Lowndes separates them and mentions a folding plate of Prince Henry's hearse, engraved by Hole, which is here missing.

697. CHAPMAN (GEORGE). The Memorable Maske of the two Honorable Houses or Inns of Court; the Middle Temple, and Lyncolns Inne. As it was performed before the King, at White-Hall on Shrove Munday at night: being the 15. of February 1613 . . . With a description of their whole show . . . 759. CLEVELAND (JOHN). The Character of a London Diurnall. FIRST EDITION. Small 4to, citron levant morocco, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru. Printed in the Yeare 1644

760. CLEVELAND (JOHN). Poems. By J. C. With Additions. Portrait. 16mo. Printed in the Year 1651

* First Edition in the original calf binding and probably unique in this state. Of the two issues printed with date of 1651, this is apparently the first. It does not contain the "Character of a London Diurnall," which is usually included in the later editions, but contains the portrait used again later, and is well printed on good paper, evidently by an established printer. It is extremely rare, while copies of the other issue, though scarce, occur from time to time in the sales-rooms. The other issue (77 pp.) bears every mark of having been a pirated or surreptitious edition, with a fictitious date of 1651. It is badly printed, with errors in typography, on very inferior paper. It has no portrait (not to be expected in a pirated edition) and contains the "Character of a London Diurnall." Hazlitt, Lowndes and a few others describe this inferior edition as the first, but a comparison of the two leaves no doubt that it was printed later than the other.

761. CLEVELAND (JOHN). The Idol of the Clovvnes, or, Insurrection of Wat the Tyler, With his fellow Kings of the Commons, against the English Church, the King, the Lawes, Nobility and Gentry, in the fourth yeare of King Richard the 2d. Anno. 1381. 16mo, red levant morocco, gilt back and edges, by Bedford.

London: Printed in the year 1654

* Three editions were issued in this year (1654) and it is impossible to say which was the first.

762. CLEVELAND (JOHN). J. Cleaveland Revived: Poems, Orations, Epistles, And other of his Genuine Incomparable Pieces. With some other Exquisite Remains of most eminent Wits of both the Universities that were his Contemporaries. This Fourth Edition, besides many other never before publisht Additions, is enriched with the Author's Midsummer Moon, or Lunacy Rampant, etc. 16mo, citron levant morocco, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru.

London: Printed for Nathaniel Brooks, 1668

763. CLEVELAND (JOHN). Clievelandi Vindiciæ; or, Clieveland's Genuine Poems, Orations, Epistles, &. Purged from the many False & Spurious Ones which had usurped his Name, and from innumerable Errours and Corruptions in the true Copies. To which are added many Additions never Printed before: With an Account of the Author's Life. Portrait of the author (brilliant impression). Small 8vo, full citron crushed levant morocco, gilt edges, inside borders. London: Printed for Obadiah Blagrave, 1677

764. CLEVELAND (JOHN). The Works of Mr. John Cleveland, Containing his Poems, Orations, Epistles, Collected into One Volume, With the Life of the Author. Port. 12mo, brown levant morocco gilt, gilt edges, by Rivière.

London: Printed by R. Holt, for Obadiah Blagrave, 1687

FIFTH SESSION.

773. COLERIDGE (SAMUEL TAYLOR). The Fall of Robespierre, an Historical Drama. 8vo, Spanish calf, gilt extra, gilt edges, by Rivière.

Cambridge: Printed by B. Flower, 1794

* FIRST EDITION, with the final leaf of advertisement.

774. COLERIDGE (SAMUEL TAYLOR). Poems on Various Subjects. Small 8vo, green levant morocco, gilt, inside borders, gilt top, UNCUT (top of title-page neatly mended). London: Printed for G. G. and J. Robinson, 1796

* FIRST EDITION, with the leaves of Errata and Advertisements. Effusions VII, XI, XII, and XIII, signed "C. L." are FIRST EDITIONS of Charles Lamb's first printed poems. The Locker-Lampson copy with his bookplate.

775. COLERIDGE (SAMUEL TAYLOR). Osorio: a Tragedy. 4to, half green levant morocco, gilt top, uncut edges, by Pratt. 1797

* A manuscript of "Remorse," a play written by Coleridge at Sheridan's request. It was sent to Drury Lane Theatre in October, 1797, but was not accepted, and remained there until the fire of 1809, when it was one of the few objects saved.

Rewritten under the title "Remorse," the play ran for twenty nights.

This manuscript—which is not in Coleridge's handwriting—covers the rectos of 104 leaves, between each two of which are one or more blank leaves for annotations and portions of the printed drama.

There appears to be but one trace of the poet's handwriting—on page 151, where the word "superstitious" is marked through with ink, and "serious" substituted in an entirely different hand.

776. COLERIDGE (SAMUEL TAYLOR). Osorio: a Tragedy as originally written in 1797 by Samuel Taylor Coleridge. Now first printed. Post 8vo, red levant morocco, back panels in gilt and blue mosaic, gilt top, uncut edges, by Champs. London, 1873

777. COLERIDGE (SAMUEL TAYLOR). Remorse, a Tragedy in Five Acts, the Prologue by Charles Lamb. 8vo, contemporary half calf, entirely uncut.

London: W. Pople, 1813

* UNIQUE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION, having been interleaved throughout and containing corrections and notes in COLERIDGE'S AUTOGRAPH. These corrections are numerous and show many variations from the text as printed in the late Mr. J. Dyke Campbell's edition of the poet's works. On the title is written in Coleridge's handwriting: "A Corrected Copy. Mr. Arnold from his greatly obliged Friend, S. T. Coleridge. 'Più vorrëi: più non posso.'"

At London: Printed by I. C. (John Charlwood) for Simon Waterson, dwelling in Paules Church-yard at the signe of the Crowne, 1592.

* FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, CONTAINING FIFTY SONNETS, of which only two copies are known. A second edition containing fifty-four Sonnets was published in 1592 also.

The only other recorded copy of this work is in the Bodleian Library. In the other edition of the same year, "The Complaint of Rosamond" extends from Bb1 to Gg2 (misprinted G) in fours. In the introduction to his reprint of these two editions of "The Complaint," J. Payne Collier writes:

"The 'Rosamond' in this form exists only in a single copy (the present is the second recorded copy) appended to the same author's 'Delia,' 1592; but as it has no separate title-page, the precise date when it originally appeared is uncertain. . . . The fact seems to be that Daniel wrote his 'Complaint of Rosamond' between the years 1585 and 1591: he subsequently collected his scattered love-sonnets, and having printed them under the title of 'Delia' in 1592, he added to them his previously published 'Complaint of Rosamond,' so that they were then sold together by Waterson, the stationer. . . . The differences between the two impressions of the 'Complaint' will be found numberless: in some places words and lines were substituted, and in one instance nineteen consecutive stanzas were added, while others were separately inserted." . . .

949. DANIEL (SAMUEL). The first fowre Bookes of the ciuile warres betweene the two houses of Lancaster and Yorke. Title within an elaborate woodcut border, with Royal Arms at the top, and with woodcuts in the text. 4to, red levant morocco, gilt back, side panels, gilt edges, by Bedford. Printed at London by P. Short, 1595

* The rare First Edition, and a very large copy, measuring 7 13/16 x 5 7/8 inches. Two editions were published in 1595, the first issue (according to Mr. Huth) reading "At London: Printed by P. Short for Simon Waterson, 1595." Some bibliographers, however, describe the copy here offered as first issue.

* An extremely rare autograph. During the struggle between Charles I and the parliament, Davenant actively took part with the Royalists, and in 1650 was sent by Henrietta Maria on a mission to Virginia to enlist the sympathies of the colonists. On the way his ship was captured by one belonging to the Parliament. Davenant was brought to London and committed to the Tower, where he remained for two years. During his imprisonment he composed and published Gondibert. [No. 973.]

Imprinted at London in fletstret... by wyllyam Copland. n. d. [ca. 1553].

* Usually called the first edition and assumed to have been printed by Copland about 1553 from the fact that one or two copies were found with Douglas' translation of the Aeneid published in that year. It may, however, have been printed earlier, and unsold copies bound with the later book. The first edition was printed by Thomas Davidson in Edinburgh, probably about 1530–1540, but only a fragment of it is in existence.

George Chalmers' copy, with his bookplate. A very fine and tall copy, measuring 7 15/16 x 5 5/8 in. EXTREMELY RARE.

Edinburgh: Printed by Andro Hart, 1616

* LARGE PAPER COPY. The book is exceedingly rare in any state but upon large paper, and in the fresh and perfect condition of this copy, it may almost be considered unique. Leaf M3, which was missing, has been replaced in facsimile from the copy in the British Museum. This leaf contains verses to the author, signed "D. Murray." The last leaf of poetry, "Speech of a Fife Laird," was retained when the book was rebound, but does not belong to it. It takes the place of the last blank leaf.

"Notwithstanding this is called 'the second impression,' in the title, it is believed to be the first, and that the change in title has been merely on account of some other matter being added; however this may be, no earlier edition is known."—Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica.

EIGHTH SESSION.

1378. FRANKLIN IMPRINT. Cato's | Moral | DISTICHS | Englished in Couplets. | (line) (Ornament) | (line). Small 4to green levant morocco, corner ornaments on each side, gilt back and inside borders, ALL EDGES ENTIRELY UNCUT, by Rivière.

Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by B. FRANKLIN, 1735

* A MAGNIFICENT COPY OF ONE OF THE RAREST OF FRANKLIN IMPRINTS, measuring 8¼ x 6 7/16 in. Those from the Brinley and Craig Libraries are apparently the only other UNCUT copies that have been offered for sale.

The Preface is the work of Franklin himself, in which in "The Printer to the Reader" he says: "It would be thought a Piece of Hopocrisy and pharisaical Ostentation in me, if I should say, that I print these Distichs more with a View to the Good of others than my own private Advantage; And indeed I can not say it; for I confess, I have so great Confidence in the common Virtue and Good Sense of the People of this and the neighbouring Provinces, that I expect to sell a very good Impression." This preface is not incorporated in Smythe's edition of Franklin's works.

1379. FRANKLIN IMPRINT. CICERO. Cato Major; or, His Discourse on OLD AGE; with Explanatory Notes [by Judge James Logan]. Small 4to, green levant morocco, ornamental panelled sides, full gilt back, inside borders, gilt top, ALL OTHER EDGES ENTIRELY UNCUT, by Bedford.

Philadelphia: Printed and Sold by B. Franklin, 1744

* ONE OF THE FINEST COPIES IN EXISTENCE, measuring 8⅝ x 6 inches, AND OF THE GREATEST RARITY IN THIS CONDITION. Probably the earliest issue, having the misprint "ony" for "only" in line 5 of page 27, an error corrected in most copies, and not found in the "Corrigenda."

1380. FRANKLIN (BENJAMIN). An Account of the Newly Invented Pennsylvanian Fire-Places, wherein Their Construction and Manner of Operation is particularly explained; Their Advantages above every other Method of Warming Rooms demonstrated; And all Objections that have been raised against the Use of Them, answered and obviated. With Directions for putting them up, and for Using them to the best Advantage. And a Copper-Plate, in which the several Parts of the Machine are exactly laid down, from a Scale of equal Parts. 8vo, blue levant morocco extra, by The Club Bindery.

Philadelphia: Printed and sold by B. Franklin, 1744

* Includes the folded plate as well as the original covers.

1386. FRANKLIN (BENJAMIN). Autograph Letter Signed, 2 pp. folio, with leaf of superscription: Phila. Jan. 31, 1757. To William Strahan, London. The letter includes Franklin's copy of a previous one of Jan. 1, 1757.

* "(B. Mecom) has settled honorably with me and bought the old Antigua Office of me, and is gone to Boston to set up his Business there among his Friends and Relations and has wrote to you to purchase him two new Founts... I wish I could give you any Hope of soon receiving your Debt of J. Read... It gives me great pleasure to hear so good an Acct. of our Son Billy. In return let me tell you, that our Daughter Sally is indeed a very good Girl, affectionate, dutiful and industrious, has one of the best Hearts, and tho' not a Wit, is for one of her years, by no means deficient of Understanding... Our Assembly talk of sending me to England speedily. Then look out sharp, and if a fat old Fellow should come to your Printing House and and request a little Smouting, depend upon it, 'tis,

Your affectionate Friend
and humble Servant
B. Franklin."

1387. FRANKLIN (BENJAMIN). Autograph Letter Signed, 2 pp. 4to, Virginia, May 9, 1763. To Mr. Strahan.

* An interesting letter written just after the conclusion of the Peace between Great Britain and France and the cession of Canada to the former. In a post-script he mentions his "Cato Major."

1388. FRANKLIN (BENJAMIN). Autograph Letter Signed, 4 pp. 4to, Passy, Jan. 18, 1781. To Mr. Dumas, mentioning Paul Jones.

* "I wondered to find that you had not in Holland on the 28th. received the Declaration of War . . . surely there never was a more unjust war. . . . The spirit of Rapine dictated it . . . every man in England who fits out a privateer to take advantage of it . . . would rob on the Highway in his own country if he was not restrained by the Gallows. They have qualified poor Capt. Jones, with the Title of Pirate, who was only at war with England. . . . If God governs, as I firmly believe, it is impossible such Wickedness should prosper." He also mentions Silas Deane, Henry Laurens, John Adams, etc.

1389. FRANKLIN (WILLIAM). Last Royal Governor of New Jersey, son of Benjamin Franklin. Autograph Letter Signed, 1 p. 4to, New York, Dec. 6, 1781. To Mr. Strahan.

Imprinted at London by Henry Middleton for Richard Ihones, 1576.

* Sir Humphrey Gilbert composed this treatise as an aid to his proposal to found a colony in Newfoundland, which he successfully accomplished a few years later, and George Gascoigne, the poet, edited the volume and contributed a commendatory poem.

One of the most interesting facts mentioned is that Cabot's original maps were in existence in his day. On sig. Diii Cabot's discoveries in the north are referred to, and it is stated that he drew charts of his voyage "which are yet to be seene in the Queenes Maiesties priuie Gallerie at White hall." These maps have entirely disappeared, and much dispute has arisen in consequence as to what Cabot may have discovered or whether he really drew any maps of his voyages.

London: Wynkyn de Worde, ca. 1495

* This work, which is a general history of nature, was written in Latin about the middle of the XIV century by Bartholomew Glanvile, an English Minorite or Franciscan of the family of the Earls of Suffolk. The English version was made by John Trevisa, vicar of Berkeley in Gloucestershire, at the request of his patron, Thomas Berkeley, in the year 1398. The present is the first English edition PRINTED BY WYNKYN DE WORDE and the first book printed on paper made in England.

Dibdin devotes twelve pages of his "Typographical Antiquities" to the volume, which he mentions as of "extraordinary typographical beauty and rarity. . . perhaps the most magnificent publication which ever issued from de Worde's press; and its rarity, in a perfect state, is extreme."

The above is one of six or seven recorded copies. The margins of some imperfect leaves at the beginning and end have been repaired, but the text is complete and intact, including the first leaf containing the title, and the last, with Caxton's device and the title repeated. The Freeling copy sold in 1836. 12⅛ x 8¼ in.

NINTH SESSION.

1576. HAKLVYT (RICHARD). The Principal Navigations, Voyages, Traffiqves and Discoveries of the English Nation, made by Sea or ouerland, to the remote and farthest distant quarters of the Earh, at any time within the compasse of these 1600 yeres: Diuided into three seuerall Volumes, according to the positions of the Regions, whereunto they were directed. 3 vols. in 2, folio; green levant morocco backs elaborately tooled fileted sides with corner ornaments, doublure of vellum, and vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, by Rivière.

Imprinted at London by George Bishop, Ralph Newberie, and Robert Barker. Anno 1599-1600.

* A LARGE, CLEAN, AND EXCEEDINGLY FINE COPY, from the Brayton Ives collection. With the original "Voyage to Cadiz" (Vol. I. pp. 607-619) which is either lacking in many copies, having been suppressed by order of Queen Elizabeth after the disgrace of the Earl of Essex, or else appears in a reprint. The original "Voyage" contains eight paragraphs on page 607, and ends at page 619 with a woodcut.

In Vol. I. pp. 187-208 is a curious poetical treatise entitled "The processe of the Libel of English policie, exhorting all England to keepe the sea," which is not in the first edition.

In Vol. III. (II. as here bound) is a genuine, original impression of the first state, in perfect condition, of the rare map or "Hydrographical Description," the work of Edward Wright, author of "Errors in Navigation," assisted by Hakluyt, and probably by John Davis, the explorer, and probably engraved by Molyneux. Molyneux engraved a map which was too late for the first edition, and appears in the second, but unsigned. Hakluyt substituted a map for the first edition until Molyneux's should be finished, consequently the two are not similar.

Hallam says in his "Introduction to the Literature of Europe," this is the best map of the xvith century. It represents the utmost limit of geographical knowledge at the close of that century, and far excels the maps in the edition of Ortelius in 1588. It has also a Shakesperian interest as the "New Map" is referred to in "Twelfth Night," Act. III. sc. 2 as follows, "He does smile his face into more lines than is in the new map with the augmentation of the Indies." (Feb. 1601-2, Hall of the Middle Temple.)

1577. HAKLUYT (RICHARD). London: Printed by J. Best, 1663

* This copy contains both title-pages, the second bearing the name of the author in full; with engraved frontispiece and thirty-eight portraits, etc., engraved by Faithorne, Hollar, Stent, and others, with the rare printed list ("catalogue of the Sculptures"). In addition, portraits of General Monk by Gaywood, and of the Duke of York and Lord Derby by Van der Gucht have been inserted, and the portrait of Charles II. at page 759 (transposed to the front of the fourth part) is not in the printed list, although evidently meant for the book. A cancel leaf occurs at folio 758 duplicating that leaf, with variations consisting of marginal references, etc.

1655. HELYAS, KNIGHT OF THE SWANNE. Folio 1: The knyght of the swanne.] Here begynneth the history of the noble He | lyas knyght of the swanne, newly translated | out of frensshe in to englysshe at thynstygacy- | on of the puyssaunt (&) Illustryous prynce lor- | de Edwarde duke of Buckyngham. | Woodcut. 74 leaves, ending with M^4, printed in De Worde's third type, with 43 woodcuts, and ornamental woodcut initials, including some grotesques. Small 4to, original calf binding formerly in the library of Edward Gwynne (book-collector of the early 17th. century) with his name stamped in gold on the front cover, and the book-plate of Sir Paul Methuen (late 17th. century).

London: Wynkyn de Worde, 1512

* PRINTED ON VELLUM. THE ONLY KNOWN COPY OF THIS REMARKABLE PRODUCTION OF WYNKYN DE WORDE'S PRESS, and said to be the only book printed by De Worde on vellum. The only record of its existence is in a manuscript copy of the title in the Bagford collection copied by Ames, and the reference in the colophon of Copland's later edition that he translated it originally for Wynkyn de Worde. The edition in the British Museum in the Garrick collection is that printed by Copland. There is no doubt that Ames must have seen this copy, as he states that it is printed on parchment, but he gives the title only, apparently not having examined it.

Under this title of Heylas, Knight of the Swan, appears the first English version of the legend of Lohengrin, with romantic additions.

1683. HEYWOOD (JOHN). The Spider and the Flie. A parable of the Spider and the Flie, made by John Heywood. Printed in Black Letter, with portrait and woodcuts, which are duplicated a number of times throughout the text, although a close inspection will show that many, while apparently alike, really present some slight variations. They are numbered consecutively 1–98. 4to, olive levant morocco, tooled doublure, gilt edges, in brown morocco case, by Joly.

Imprinted at London in Flete Strete by Tho. Povvell, Anno. 1556.

* FIRST EDITION. An exceptionally large and fine copy, measuring 5 5/8 x 8 13/16 inches. A manuscript note by Mr. Hoe calls attention to the fact that the leaves are unwashed and in beautiful condition. A very small portion of the blank margin of one leaf seems defective, but this is an original defect in the sheet, which is uncut. This work is of an allegorical character, and was intended by the author to defend the position of the Catholic party in the reign of Queen Mary. The author states in the Conclusion that the Flies were intended to represent the Catholics, and the Spiders the Protestants.

1684. [HEYWOOD (THOMAS).] If you knovv not me, You know no bodie: Or, The troubles of Queene Elizabeth. Large woodcut on title representing Queen Elizabeth enthroned. Small 4to, green levant morocco, gilt edges, by Bedford. Chapter ~~III~~ IX

How the city of New Amsterdam waxed great under the protection of Wouter Van Twiller and the shadow of his magnificent Staff. How Wouter the Doubter began to dream of an extension of empire, and of the effect of his dreams.

THERE is something exceedingly delusive in thus looking back through the long vista of departed years and catching a glimpse of the fairy realms of antiquity that lie beyond. Like some lofty land cape melting into distance, they recede in a thousand shadowy hills in every obscurity, and the fancy delights to fill up their outlines with graces and excellencies of its own creation. Thus [illegible] among my imaginations those happier days of our city, when as yet New-Amsterdam was a mere pastoral town, shrouded in groves of sycamore and willows, and surrounded by trackless forests and wide spreading waters, that seemed to shut out all the cares and vanities of a wicked world.

In those days did this embryo city present the rare and noble spectacle of a community governed without laws; and thus being left to its own course, and the fostering care of Providence, increased as rapidly as though it had been burthened with a dozen panniers full of those sage laws that are usually heaped on the backs of young cities—in order to make them grow. And in this particular I great-

London, 1616–1640

* FIRST FOLIO EDITION of the collected works, and Jonson's own edition. A LARGE PAPER COPY OF BOTH VOLUMES The Huth copy of the first volume was believed to be unique on large paper, and the existence of this complete second volume is usually denied. The Huth copy contains the three plays edited by the author towards a second volume, viz.: "Bartholomew Fayre," "The Staple of Newes" and "The Divell is an Asse." Mr. Brinsley Nicholson, in his exhaustive account of the early folio editions of Jonson's works, in "Notes and Queries," June 18, 1870, says: "The noncontinuance of the attempt at a second collected volume beyond the third play, 'The Staple of News,' was probably due to the damning by the town of 'The New Inn' in that same year," thus implying that he did not know of the second volume. The three plays in the second volume are dated 1631; the general title, 1640. This copy is clean and perfect throughout and measures 12 11/16 x 8 5/16 inches.

1902. JOSEPHINE (EMPRESS OF FRANCE). Memoirs, with Anecdotes of the Courts of Navarre and Malmaison. 3 vols. post 8vo, green morocco, gilt tops, uncut, by The Club Bindery. London: Colburn, 1828–29

ACCOMPANYING THE VOLUME IS ONE OF KEATS' LETTERS TO FANNY BRAWNE, three pages 8vo, in excellent condition. The letter though undated was written 1819.

"My dearest Fanny.

I had a better night last night than I have had since my attack, and this morning I am the same as when you saw me. I have been turning over two volumes of letters written between Rosseau (sic) and two ladies in the perplexed strain of mingled finesse and sentiment in which the ladies and gentlemen of those days were so clever, and which is still prevalent among Ladies of this country who live in a state of reasoning (?) romance.

"The likeness however only extends to a mannerism not to the dexterity. What would Rousseau have said at seeing our little correspondence! What would the Ladies have said! I don't care much.—I would sooner have Shakespeare's opinion about the matter. The common gossiping of washer-women must be less disgusting than the continual and eternal fence and attack of Rouseau and these sublime petticoats. * * * * *

"Mr. Barry cornwall has sent me another book, his first, with a polite note. I must do what I can to make him sensible of the esteem I have for his kindness. If the northeast (wind) would take a turn it would be so much the better for me.

"Goodbye, my love, my dear love, my beauty—love me forever.

J. K."

"Miss Brawne" written in Keats' autograph on page 4. Portrait of Keats, India proof, with above.

1924. KEATS (JOHN). Conditions of Sale.

1. All bids to be per Lot as numbered in the Catalogue.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and this Company will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

5. Terms Cash. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each Sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

6. All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule.

7. Autograph Letters, Documents, and Manuscripts are sold as they are without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.

8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers. We use all bids competitively and buy at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

PART I—L TO Z.

ELEVENTH SESSION.

1948. LABORDE (JEAN-BENJAMIN DE). Choix de Chansons mises en musique par M. de La Borde. Portrait of La Borde, engraved by Masquelier after Denon; 4 engraved titles by Nee and Masquelier after Moria, Mlle. Vendôme, Le Bouteux and Le Barbier; dedication engraved by Masquelier after Moreau; 25 plates designed and engraved by Moreau and 75 plates engraved by Nee and Masquelier after Le Bouteux, Le Barbier and St. Quentin; the text and the music of the whole work engraved by Moria and Mlle. Vendôme. 4 vols. in 2. Royal 8vo, red levant morocco, gilt dentelle borders on sides, tooled backs, gilt edges, in the style of Derome, by Capé. Paris: De Lormel, 1773

* Original Edition, with the rare portrait of La Borde "a la lyre" often missing, as it was engraved a year after the printing of the book. A tall copy, measuring 247 mm. From the Grenuard library, with bookplate.

[See Illustration.]

1949. LA BORDERIE (LE SEIGNEUR DE). L'Amie de Court.—La parfaicte amye, nouvellement composée par Anthoine Heroet, dict la maison neufve.—La Contreamie de court par Charles Fontaine Parisien.—L'experience de maistre Paul Angier Garentenoys, contenant une briefve deffence en la personne de l'honneste amant pour l'amye de court contre la contreamye. In one volume. 16mo, blue levant morocco, gilt inside borders, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet. [n. p.—n. d 16th., Century]

1950. [LA BRETONNIÈRE (F. DE).] Le Cochon mitré, Dialogue. Manuscript copy, finely executed, of this violent satire. Small 8vo, old green morocco, gilt edges. The Nodier copy. 1739

1951. LA BRUYÈRE (JEAN DE). Les Caractères de La Bruyère suivis des Caractères de Théophraste, traduits du Grec par le même. 2 vols. royal 8vo, half brown morocco, gilt back, gilt top, uncut edges, by Hering. Paris, 1824

* One of fifty copies printed on large Holland paper, with portrait of La Bruyère; proof on India paper, before letters.

1952. LACHARNAIS (PIERRE DE COTIGNON). Ovvrage Poëtique. 12mo, red levant morocco, gilt back, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet. Paris, 1626

* FIRST EDITION, printed in italic type. To attract attention to this book the publisher substituted for the first title, "Ouvrage Poëtique du Sr. de Lacharnays," another one, "Les Vers Satiriques du Nouveau Theophile." The present copy contains both of these titles, engraved by "C. D.", and also the two final leaves with the key to the enigmas, found in only a few copies. The peculiarity of this key is that it is printed (Brunet incorrectly says "engraved") backwards, on one side only of the leaf, so that it must be held to the light to be read.

1953. LACLOS (CHODERLOS DE). Les Liaisons Dangereuses. Numerous lithographic illustrations. Royal 8vo, original wrappers, uncut. Paris: F. Ferroud, 1908

* One of 40 copies printed on Japan paper, with the lithographs in 3 states, in black and colors, on India paper. Inserted is an original drawing on Wedgwood paper.

1954. LACTANTIUS FIRMIANUS. Opera. De divinis institutionibus adversus gentes libri VII. De ira Dei, etc. Roman character, 184 unnumbered leaves (including the blanks 10, 183 and 184), without signatures and catchwords; 36 lines to the page. Rubricated throughout and initials painted in red and blue. Folio, contemporary Italian binding in wooden boards, covered with stamped calf (corners and joints restored) with leather ties and clasps.

In Venerabili Monasterio Sublacensi [C. Sweynheym et A. Pannartz], 1465.

* EDITIO PRINCEPS OF LACTANTIUS. THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ITALY, WITH A DATE, and the second book for which Greek type was cast. The type for the Greek quotations was used irregularly in the book as far as leaf 19, some blank spaces occurring in the text, intended for their use, after which they were used on every occasion. Marginal notes by a contemporary hand. The two-leaf errata missing, as usual, otherwise a fine and large copy of this rare and important monument of the art of printing. Hain-Copinger, 9806; Proctor, 3288.

Imprinted at London, by Wyllam Copland [ca. 1550]

* Dibdin says that the only copy known of this curious tract is in the Bodlean Library, and consists of "one sheet only." Lowndes says, "The testament of Wyl Bucke, an animal so called, consists of ten stanzas; the remainder of the tract consists of culinary receipts."

1956. LADY ALIMONY; or, The Alimony Lady. An Excellent Pleasant New Comedy Duly Authorized, daily Acted, and frequently Followed. FIRST EDITION. Small 4to, blue levant morocco, gilt edges, by Zaehnsdorf.

London: Printed for Tho. Vere, 1659

* Attributed by Wood to Lodge and Greene.

1957. LA FAYETTE (LA COMTESSE DE). La Princesse de Montpensier. 12mo, blue straight-grain morocco, gilt and blind tooling, yellow silk linings, gilt edges, by Bozerian. Paris, 1804

* One of a few copies printed on large tinted vellum paper, with two portraits of Mlle. de Montpensier.

* From the Pixerécourt collection.

1958. [LA FAYETTE (LA COMTESSE DE).] La Princesse de Cleves. 4 vols in 1, 12mo, blue levant morocco, gilt back, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet. Amsterdam [n. d.)

* Engraved title, with the initial L on a pillar. Volumes 1–2 and 3–4 have separate pagination. The Privilege to Barbin is retained in this copy, also the words, "Achevé d'imprimer pour la première fois le 8 Mars 1678." Height, 130 mm.

1959. LA FERRIERE-PERCY (HECTOR, COM DE). Marguerite D'Angouleme . . . son Livre de Dep . . . Étude sur ses Dernières Années. 12mo, green levant morocco, gilt panelled back and sides, doublures of maroon crushed levant morocco, with wide ornate gilt tooled borders, gilt top, uncut, by Rousselle. Paris: Aubry, 1862

* PRINTED ON VELLUM.

1960. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Contes et Nouvelles en vers. Paris, chez Claude Barbin, 1665.—Deuxiesme Partie des Contes et Novvelles en vers. Paris, chez Louis Billaine, M.DC.XLVI [for 1666]. 2 vols. in one, 12mo, original calf, gilt edges.

1962. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Nouveaux Contes de Monsieur de la Fontaine. Small 8vo, red levant morocco, doublures of green morocco, gilt tooled dentelle borders, gilt edges. Mons: Gaspar Migeon, 1674

* FIRST EDITION of the fourth part of the "Contes." EXTREMELY RARE.

La Fontaine obtained the King's Privilege to print the first three parts, but was obliged to publish the fourth surreptitiously. The Lieutenant of Police, M. de la Reynie caused the book to be seized, and on April 5, 1675, issued an interdiction of its sale, on the ground that it was unlicensed and "filled with indiscretions calculated to corrupt manners and inspire libertinage."

1963. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Nouveaux Contes de Monsieur de La Fontaine. Small 8vo, original calf, an anchor on the sides, the mark of Count Toulouse.

Mons: chez Gaspar Migeon, 1674

* THE ORIGINAL EDITION of the fourth part of the "Contes."

The above copy has an engraved frontispiece and a letterpress title with the date Amsterdam, chez Corneille Jans Zwol, 1676. The rest of the volume is the edition of 1674, including the title. This can be only explained by the theory that the entire edition of 1674 not having been sold on account of its interdiction, the publisher disposed of the remaining copies to an Amsterdam bookseller, who added a frontispiece and a new title.

1964. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Contes et Nouvelles en vers. Engraved frontispiece by Lebas, fleurons on title and 70 vignettes engraved by Chedel, Fessard and Ravenet, after Cochin. 2 vols. 12mo, green levant morocco, gilt dentelle borders on the sides in the manner of Derome, gilt back and inside borders, gilt edges, by David.

Amsterdam [Paris], 1745

1965. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Contes et Nouvelles en vers. Portraits of La Fontaine engraved by Ficquet after Rigaud of Eisen by Ficquet after Vispré, and of Choffard by himself; 80 fine plates by Aliamet, Baquoy, Choffard, Delafosse, Flipart, Lemire, Leveau, De Longueil and Ouvrier, after Eisen, 4 vignettes and 53 tail-pieces by Chauffard. 2 vols. small 8vo, old French green morocco, gilt ornamental borders on the sides, gilt backs from a special design by Gravelot, silk linings, gilt edges, by Derome. Amsterdam [Paris], 1762

* The famous edition called "DES FERMIERS GÉNÉRAUX," one of the most beautiful illustrated books of the 18th century. The plate entitled "Le Cas de conscience" is in the uncovered state. The above copy is one of those called "DE PRESENT."

1966. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Contes et Nouvelles en vers. 2 vols. 12mo, red straight-grain morocco gilt, gilt edges, by Lefebvre. Paris: P. Didot, 1795

* LARGE PAPER COPY. Published originally without engravings; in 1813 the bookseller Nepvue added a series of plates after Desenne, Dugoure, Chasselat, and other artists. The present copy contains 71 of these plates and two portraits of La Fontaine after Rigault.

1967. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Contes et Nouvelles en vers. Portraits and vignettes. 2 vols. in 1. 12mo, red levant morocco, back and sides richly tooled in panels, gilt over uncut edges, by Capé. Paris, 1861

* One of 20 copies printed on India paper.

1968. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Tales and Novels in verse. Illustrated with the 85 original plates by Eisen. 2 vols. 8vo, original wrappers, uncut. Paris, 1883

* One of 100 copies printed on Japan paper,

1969. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). 73 plates by Simonet and other engravers, after the designs of Alexandre Desenne and other artists, illustrating the "Contes de la Fontaine." 12mo, half calf, uncut.

1970. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Fables choisies, mises en vers. FIRST 12MO EDITION. 118 vignettes by Chauveau. 2 vols. 12mo, red levant morocco, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru. Paris: Claude Barbin, 1668

1971. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Fables choisies, mises en vers, par M. de la Fontaine, & par luy revues, corrigées & augmentées. With 235 vignettes by F. Chauveau and others. 5 vols. 12mo, red levant morocco gilt, doublures of green morocco, with gilt borders, gilt edges.
Paris: chez Denys Thierry and Claude Barbin, 1678–94

* The only complete edition published under La Fontaine's supervision. Parts I, II and V are first issues. Leaf of Errata of Part II and first blank of Part III missing, and leaf containing advertisement and Errata of Part III bound after the title of Part IV.

1972. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Fables. With 276 plates after the designs of Vivier and others. 6 vols. small 8vo, orange levant morocco, floral back, panels, sides borders, in an elaborate design in the style of Derome, by David. Paris, 1796 in October, 1698, of the library of Dr. Francis Bernard, physician to James II, where it was one of twelve Caxtons. It sold there for two shillings and sixpence (sixty-eight cents) and passed into the possession of Sir Robert Harley, first Earl of Oxford, whose shelf mark is on the first page, and who had it rebound in its present covers. The next possessor was Bryan Fairfax, who again sold it (with his whole library) privately to Francis Child, grandfather of the Countess of Jersey, the appraiser valuing it at £2.12.6—about thirteen dollars. The Child Library passed through marriage to the Earl of Jersey, whose book-plate is on the cover, and at the sale of that library in 1885, was bought by Quaritch for Mrs. Norton Q. Pope of Brooklyn for £1950, and at her death Mr. Hoe became its owner.

1973. LA FONTAINE (JEAN DE). Fables suivies d'Adonis, poeme. 2 vols. 12mo, green vellum, uncut, in half brown morocco cases. Paris: An VII [1799]

The only other known copies are imperfect, that in the Rylands Library—formerly Earl Spencer's—lacking 10 leaves.

TWELFTH SESSION.

MANUSCRIPTS.

2115. BEDE. Opusculum in librum actuum Apostolorum cum expositione de nominibus locorum et expositio in septem Epistolas Canonicas. MS ON VELLUM OF THE SECOND HALF OF THE 12TH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN DOUBLE COLUMNS, BY AN ENGLISH SCRIBE. 101 leaves (13 1/16 x 8⅝ inches), 36 lines to the page. Ornamental initials in red and green. Folio. Sæc. XII.

*A REMARKABLY FINE EXAMPLE OF AN EARLY ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT IN A MOST INTERESTING CONTEMPORARY BINDING of oak boards and pigskin, with the original undressed deer-skin cover, secured with brass bosses. On the upper margin of the first page is written by a contemporary hand: "Liber Sancte Marie de Bella Landa."

2116. BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, cum prologis Sancti Hieronymi. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 13TH CENTURY EXECUTED AT CREMONA, neatly written in a minute Gothic character in red and black, double columns. 350 leaves (9 7/16 x 6⅝ inches). Embellished with 56 LARGE AND 56 SMALL HISTORIATED AND ORNAMENTAL INITIALS, illuminated in gold and colors; the running head-lines and chapter numbers on the margins in blue, red and gold, with elaborate marginal decorations in red. 4to, old undressed leather, gauffred gilt edges, in a morocco slip-case. Sæc. XIII.

*A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT OF ST. JEROME'S VERSION OF THE BIBLE IN VERY FINE CONDITION. The first initial, representing St. Jerome sitting at a desk and writing, is accompanied by an elaborate border. The first initial of the text of I. Genesis, which extends the full length of the page, is divided into eight compartments, the first and the last of a larger size representing God sitting between angels, the six days of the Creation, the Temptation of Eve, and the expulsion from the Garden.

On the upper margin of the first page is the following distych written in very minute gold characters:

"Laudibus huius heri felix letare cremona
Qui meruit fieri patrie generisque corona."

And along the first initial of Genesis, also in gold characters, another distych:

"Materiam superat opus excellens uiuiani
Cuius facta probant mores in pectore sani."

This indicates that the above was written and illuminated at Cremona by a scribe named Viviano. From the W. F. Fowle and Addington libraries.

2117. BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, cum tabula interpretationum nominum hæbraicorum. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE 14TH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN GOTHIC MINUSCULE IN RED AND BLACK, AND EXECUTED IN ITALY. 679 leaves (10 3/8 x 8 1/16 inches). Decorated with 114 large and small historiated and ornamented initials, with floral scrolls painted in various colors, and hundreds of initials in red and blue. Thick 4to, old red morocco, gilt edges. Sæc. XIV.

* The first leaf has an architectural and ornamental border, with the title of the book written in gold capitals, and the arms of the VISCONTI OF MILAN; first leaf of text surrounded by an historiated border, with the same arms in the lower part. The title and the border were executed by a later artist. The first initial of Genesis (I) extends the full length of the page, and is divided into 6 compartments formed by medallions, in which are represented the days of the Creation, ending with a trilobal medallion having Christ on the cross between the Virgin and St. John.

2118. BREVIARIUM ROMANUM secundum consuetudinem Romanæ curiæ et cum calendario. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 14TH CENTURY, written in neat small Gothic characters in red and black, double columns, and executed in Italy, 558 leaves (5⅝ x 4 inches) Ornamented with 15 LARGE DECORATIVE AND HISTORIATED INITIALS, illuminated in gold and colors, and hundreds of initials painted in red and blue, with scroll ornamentation. Thick 8vo, ancient binding of wooden boards, covered with stamped calf, brass corner and centre pieces and 4 clasps, two on the side, one at the top and one at the bottom. Sæc. XIV.

2119. [BRETON (NICHOLAS).] The Passionate Shepheard, or The Shepheardes Loue: set downe in Passions to his Shepheardesse Agalia. With many conceited Poems and pleasant Sonnets, fit for young heads to pass away idle hours. Lond. 1604. Manuscript copy, written on 25 leaves, 4to. Bound in dark brown levant morocco, gilt top, by Alfred Matthews.

* The manuscript is unsigned but is possibly by J. Payne Collier. On the title is written: "My Ms. Copy before the beautiful reprint of it made by F. Ouvry whose book the original now is."

2120. BURY (RICHARD DE). Philobiblion [Colophon] Explicit, phylobyblon Rychardi de Bury epī de amōe libro 2ℓ & sciā 2ℓ. Deo grās. AN ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT OF THE EARLY PART OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, written in Gothic characters on 44 leaves of vellum, 24 lines to a page (5½ inches x 4 inches), the initials and paragraph marks in red. 12mo, limp vellum. Sæc. XV

* An early Manuscript of the renowned "Treatise on the Love of Books," a work pre-eminently esteemed by all booklovers.

The present codex is not mentioned by Andrew Fleming West in his monograph on Bury issued by the Grolier Club—in fact, only one other early MS., that in the collection of Mr. Samuel Timmins, was then known to be in private hands, the others being in great public libraries of Europe.

The sentiments of the Author are too well known to be quoted at length, but he was one who, to use his own words, "preferred books to pounds & loved parchments more than florins."

Bowyer, Custodian of the Royal Archives in the Tower of London, and is divided into 3 parts: (1) Charters relating to the family, Patents of Nobility conferred, and Liberties granted to the Castle of Kenilworth; (2) Historical and Poetical notices relating to the Kings who have granted the same, and (3) Poetical, Heroic and Satyric Eulogies, the latter relating to the monks who were connected with the family estate. The last named are written in Roman or Italic characters, the former being in the usual Elizabethan script hand.

The miniatures are mostly allegorical in nature and depict Henry III in armor, one foot on firebrand, Edward I in triumphal car, accompanied by Wallace and Duns Scotus; Edward II accosted by "Fortunæ Volubilitas," with crown and scourge; Edward III standing on the lion and unicorn holding ship and globe; Richard III being crowned, Haxey kneeling before him, &c. There are also 3 satyrical paintings revealing the incontinence and gluttony of the monks.

The coats of arms are accurately emblazoned and include those of Simon de Montfort and the Earls of Leicester, Roger Mortimer and the Earls of March, the Earls of Arundell (Fitzalan), Lincoln (Lacy), Winchester (Despenser), Salisbury (Montacute), and others.

A remarkable feature of this manuscript is a FINE CONTEMPORARY MAP OF ENGLAND, executed with the greatest care, several hundred names of places inserted, each indicated with a gold dot, the cathedral cities in red, and the Arms of Robert Dudley emblazoned in miniature in the right upper margin.

2125. [DUMOURIEZ (CHARLES FRANÇOIS—Translator).] Histoire de la Guerre d'Amérique. [Vers 1782.] 12mo, red levant morocco, side borders tooled in interlacing fillets and dots, scroll back, by Niédrée.

* An autograph translation into English by Dumouriez of an abridged account of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR IN AMERICA, written in a neat hand upon 56 leaves of Holland paper. 157 x 91 mm.

Prefixed is a letter from Dumouriez to Beaumarchais dated Cherbourg, May 4, 1782, in which he says that he wishes to exchange the manuscript for the well-known Beaumarchais edition in octavo of the works of Voltaire.

THE PEMBROKE HOURS.

2127. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS AD USUM SARUM, CUM KALENDARIO. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN NEAT GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, AND EXECUTED IN ENGLAND, the Kalendar in gold, blue, red and black. 231 leaves (11⅜ x 8¼), embellished with 24 small CIRCULAR MINIATURES in the lower margin of the Kalendar, representing the occupations of the months and the Signs of the Zodiac, 29 FULL-PAGE MINIATURES WITHIN BORDERS, about 260 of a smaller size, 42 of the leaves having large borders of scroll and floral work interspersed with human figures, chimeras, grotesques, &c., in brilliant colors heightened with gold, and several hundred large and small initial letters. Small folio, old crimson velvet with corner-pieces and clasps of silver engraved with biblical subjects. In a brown morocco case. Sæc. XV.

* A BEAUTIFUL ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT EXECUTED FOR SIR WILLIAM HERBERT, EARL OF PEMBROKE of the first creation, partisan of Richard III. in the Wars of the Roses, and who was captured and executed in 1469. Later in the possession of Sir William Herbert, first Earl of Pembroke of the second creation, grandson of the former, in whose time were probably added the first twenty and the last fourteen folios. In the nineteenth century it was in the possession of the Borghese family of Rome, and sold by them to an Italian antiquary, who again sold it to Mr. F. S. Ellis, the London bookseller, from whom it passed to General Brayton Ives of this city, and finally to Mr. Robert Hoe.

The first twenty leaves of the manuscript contain private prayers, one or two having responses in English, and the final leaves are entirely in English, probably being additions made by the second Earl of Pembroke in the sixteenth century, evidenced by the Order of the Garter surrounding his arms, contained on the reverse of the first folio, a dignity conferred on the Earl by Edward VI. in 1549. On the second leaf is a full-length portrait of the Earl of Pembroke in silver and gold armor kneeling before an altar in a chapel, probably that of the Abbey of Wilton granted to the Earl by Henry VIII. a shield with his arms attached to a pillar. The first three leaves have illuminated borders, and four of the large initials contain the crests of the Herbert family. That the manuscript is for the Sarum use is shown by the Hymn and the three Lessons at Matins, the Capitulum and Collects at Lauds, and by the Litanies. In the Kalendar are found in red Wulfstan (Jan. 19), Cedda (March 2), Edward (March 18), Cuthbert (March 20), Richard (April 3), Alphege (April 19), Dunstan (May 19), Edmund (June 19), Oswald (Aug. 5), Wulfran (Oct. 15), Friedwida (Oct. 19), Thomas A'Becket (Dec. 29).

The older—and main portion of the manuscript—commences at folio 21 and ends at folio 216. The first few leaves contain the calendar, and written in the margin are notes at certain dates relating to incidents in the War of the Roses, in which the first Earl of Pembroke lost his life. At the VII kalend of April (Feb. 23) is noted the death of Humphrey, Duke of Gloucester, first of the Earls of Pembroke and Cardiff; at the XVIII kalend of April is noted the date of the battle of Barnet (1471), and the death of the Earl of Warwick, in May the battle of Tewkesbury, in June the marriage of Richard III, and so on, the writer being probably the private chaplain to the family.

The subjects of the large miniatures are:

1. The Agony in the Garden, soldiers entering to take the Saviour through a gate in the background.
2. The Annunciation. An interior of a library with manuscripts on shelves, a beautifully finished landscape seen through the windows.
3. The Betrayal of Christ. A group of soldiers outside the garden, in the background the towers of Jerusalem.
4. The Visitation of Elizabeth, a river and landscape in the background.
5. Christ before Pilate, a landscape seen through the window, The building has a tower with clock.
6. The Nativity, in the background the city of Jerusalem.
7. The Scourging of Christ, at the right the Judgment Hall of Pilate filled with Roman soldiers.
8. The Announcement to the Shepherds.
9. Christ bearing the Cross, on the left the Virgin and others issuing from the house of Pilate, the escort of soldiers in curious armor and habits.
10. The Adoration of the Magi.
11. The Crucifixion.
12. The Presentation in the Temple, a group of ten persons.
13. The Descent from the Cross.
14. The Massacre of the Innocents. Scene in the hall of Herod.
15. The Entombment, a group of eleven persons, in the background boats sailing on a winding river, and a man in a boat issuing from the water-gate of a castle.
16. The Flight into Egypt, Joseph and Mary pursued by horsemen who are issuing from a gateway.
17. The Last Judgment. Christ seated on a rainbow, the graves opening below, at the left the gate of Heaven guarded by S. Peter; at the right S. Michael with sword and scales before the gate of Hell.
18. The Raising of Lazarus. The scene a church interior, an unusual composition.
19. Christ in the act of blessing, at the right an angel in prayer, at the left two angels playing the harp and viol. A painting suggesting the same composition and period is the Triptych by Hans Memling in the Morrison collection, but with the Virgin instead of Christ.
20. S. Asaph writing the Psalms, seated in a circular chair, before wood fire.
21. The Resurrection. Christ standing on the top of the sepulchre, with the heads of Herod, Pilate, Annas, Caiaphas and Judas, and the symbols of the Passion.
22. The Crowning of David. Three compartments, David and his followers at the top approaching Jerusalem; the High Priest carrying the sacred oil, and another priest carrying the crown, with minstrels and singers in the two other compartments.

23. The Siege of Jerusalem, soldiers in the foreground with a large cannon mounted on a sled, discharging it at the city. In the streets women lamenting.
24. David on a hill overlooking Jerusalem, the soldiers slaying victims in the streets. At the right the incident of the mother exhorting her seven sons to refuse the swine's flesh offered by Antiochus.
25. Three compartments: Christ before Pilate, the Scourging, and, the Crucifixion.
26. S. Asaph seated in the forecourt of a house conducting three singers, at the top a service in open-air church.
27. Symbolical painting. Buildings in the background symbolizing the World, to which God the Father sends his Son, indicated by a child descending through golden rays. In the foreground the twelve Apostles. At the left a rocky prison, through the bars of which sinners are looking for redemption.
28. Five compartments. David on a couch seeing the vision of the Death of Christ; the Last Supper; the Crucified Christ adored by angels; Christ holding a globe and a chalice containing the host; and, the Celebration of the Mass.
29. The Ascension of the Virgin, borne in a sheet to Heaven by four angels. Above are Christ and a choir of angels, and below the open grave.

2128. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS secundum usum Angliæ Ecclesiæ, cum Calendario. AN ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, BY AN ENGLISH SCRIBE, written in large Gothic characters, on 176 leaves of vellum (9¼ in. by 6¼ in.). DECORATED WITH 55 MINIATURES, including St. George slaying the Dragon, and the Murder of St. Thomas à Becket, some with diapered backgrounds, 47 ELEGANT BORDERS, composed of flowers and scrolls, 24 large floral initials, in colors, the small initial letters also illuminated, and heightened with burnished gold throughout, with the arms of the original owner (Lord Somers) on lower margin of the first miniature and first border. Large 8vo, red velvet, with silver clasp, gilt edges.
Sæc. XV.

* A characteristic example of English illumination of the period—in fine condition. The Kalendar, which is very full, contains Wulstan, Bp. Richard, Guthlac, Johannis de Beverlac, Dunstan, Adelm, Etheldreda, Swithun, Bp. Sampson, Oswald, Filibert, Cuthbuert, Wulfran, Wenefrede, Archbp. Edmund and others, while the Litany invokes SS George, Edward, Swithun, Birinus and Eufemia. On the fly-leaf at end is a note: "This curious Manuscript I bought out of the Library of Sr. Joseph Jekyl. It formerly belonged to Lord Somers. [Signed] James West, February, 173⅗."

* There are certain indications which suggest that this Manuscript may be of English origin, though Sir F. Madden and Mr. Shaw considered it to be Flemish, hence, it may have been executed by a Flemish artist in England. Sir Francis Palgrave, however, judged it to be French. The Calendar contains King Edward, Bp. Richard, Guthlac, Nodor, Dunstan, Swithun, Oswald, Filibert, &c., while Thomas à Becket is erased—as is often the case with English MSS. At the top of the first page of the Calendar is "Jesus have merci upon us. John busshells boke tayler." From Dawson Turner's Collection, with his autograph, also the autograph of "Robert Hoe, Jr., NewYork, 1872."

* A SUPERB MANUSCRIPT, AND A BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF A FIFTEENTH CENTURY ILLUMINATED HORÆ.

The delicate execution and brilliant coloring of this beautiful volume, show that it was executed by an Artist of great merit. The miniatures include S. John on Patmos, the Devil stealing his ink-well, S. Luke painting a portrait of the Virgin, the Visitation of Elizabeth, with landscape in curious perspective; King David praying on battlemented roof, overlooking a river; a burial scene of unusual composition, depicting a Struggle between the Archangel Michael and the Devil for the soul of the departed. The Miniatures of Saints include S. Lawrence with gridiron, S. Denis holding his own head after martyrdom, S. Martin dividing his cloak, S. Maurus with staff and book, S. Fiacre with spade and book, S. Genevieve, the angel holding candle, and the devil blowing it out with bellows, etc. The scenes in the calendar are of peculiar interest, depicting MANNERS AND CUSTOMS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE TIME, emblematic of the 12 Months, viz.: Feasting, Pruning, Picking Flowers Hawking, Reaping, Threshing, Wine Pressing, Killing the Wild Boar, etc.

2131. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Parisiensem, cum Calendario. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY WRITTEN IN BOLD GOTHIC CHARACTER IN RED AND BLACK, WITH THE CALENDAR IN BLUE AND RED, PROBABLY EXECUTED IN THE NORTH OF FRANCE. 170 leaves, (8⅜ x 6 inches). Embellished with 12 LARGE MINIATURES (Flemish School), some with diapered backgrounds, 2 historiated initials, numerous elaborate borders composed of thickly interlaced foliage, flowers, scrolls, etc., illuminated in gold and colors, and numerous illuminated initials. 4to, old French red morocco gilt, gilt edges, in old calf slip case. Sæc. XV.

* A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT. The arrangement of the borders, executed in "line and leaf" design, is unusual; throughout the greater part the rectos of the folios have two lateral borders, one on each side of the page, and the versos have one border only. A few very small miniatures are introduced, representing the Virgin weaving, Joseph as a carpenter, etc. The names of these saints written in blue, including St. Vincent (Jan. 22); St. Eloy (June 25); St. Martial (July 3); St. Martin (July 4); St. Anne (July 26); Commemoration of St. Owen, St. Louis (Aug. 25); St. Denis (Oct. 9); St. Roman (Oct. 23); St. Katherine (Nov. 25). The Litanies invoke St. Victor, martyr; St. Yvon and St. Germain, confessors.

2132. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Romanum cum Calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY WRITTEN IN BOLD GOTHIC CHARACTER IN RED AND BLACK, AND PROBABLY EXECUTED AT AMIENS. 162 leaves (7¾ x 5¾ inches). ORNAMENTED WITH 18 BEAUTIFUL MINIATURES. Each page of text has a lateral border of ivy leaves traced in black and finished in burnished gold with brightly colored flowers; the pages containing miniatures having unusually elaborate borders, introducing a variety of flowers and fruits. 8vo, old French brown morocco, the sides in compartments formed by interlacing fillets, scrolls, arabesques and leaf sprays, possibly by Clovis Eve. Sæc. XV.

* The miniatures, the coloring of which is fresh and pure, include The Virgin and Child with two figures kneeling before them—presumably the original owners for whom the manuscript was written. The saints in the Calendar comprise: St. Genevieve (Jan. 3), St. Vincent (Jan. 22), St. Agathe (Feb. 5), St. George (April 23), St. Nicholas (May 9), St. Christopher (July 25), St. Louis (Aug. 25), St. Denis (Oct. 9), St. Clement (Nov. 24), St. Katherine (Nov. 26); while in the litanies are found St. Firmin and St. Fuscian, martyrs; St. Honoratus, confessor; St. Ulla, virgin.

2133. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Romanum cum Calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, PROBABLY EXECUTED IN THE NORTHEAST OF FRANCE. 224 leaves (4 13/16 x 3½ inches). EMBELLISHED WITH 20 FINE MINIATURES PAINTED IN "CAMAÏEU GRIS" heightened with gold and surrounded by borders composed of scrolls, leaves, flowers, grotesque figures, etc., illuminated in gold and colors, and numerous illuminated ornamental initials. Small 8vo, red levant morocco, gilt-tooled borders and centre ornaments inlaid in brown morocco on the sides, gilt edges, by Lortic, in a levant morocco slip case. Sæc. XV.

* A FINE EXAMPLE OF MINIATURE WORK IN "CAMAÏEU GRIS" apparently by two different hands. Among the miniatures are Christ teaching the Disciples, the Beheading of St. James, the Crucifixion of St. Andrew, the Martyrdom of St. Stephen, the Last Judgment and St. Barbara. The Calendar has St. Vaast (Feb. 6 & July 17), St. Eloy (June 25), St. Louis (Aug. 25), St. Remi (Oct. 1), St. Denis (Oct. 9), St. Eloy (Dec. 1) and St. Nichaise (Dec. 14), all written in red. In the litanies are found St. Louis, confessor; St. Gertrude and St. Genofeva, virgins.

2134. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Romanum cum Calendario. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN MINUTE GOTHIC CHARACTERS, WITH THE CALENDAR IN BLACK AND BLUE, EXECUTED IN FRENCH AND PROBABLY AT ANGERS. 107 leaves (5 9-16 x 3⅞ inches). ORNAMENTED WITH 7 MINIATURES, 5 smaller delicately executed pictures in grisaille (red, blue and brown) heightened with gold, and 7 lateral borders of foliage scrolls, etc., in gold and colors; also numerous large and small illuminated initials. 16mo, old brown French morocco, tooled and gilt, in compartments formed by interlaced bands, arabesques and leaf sprays in the spaces, and on the centre of the front cover the name "FRANCOIS LE BIGOT" and on the back cover "PERRETTE D'AMOVRS," gilt back, gilt edges, with ties by Clovis Eve, in a morocco case.

Sæc. XV.

*A remarkable Specimen, the Miniatures painted with microscopic delicacy and the text in an extremely minute hand, with tiny initial letters. In the Calendar are written in blue St. Anthony (Jan. 17), Translatio Sancti Nicolai (May 9), St. Margaret (July 13), St. Maurilius, Bishop of Angers (Sept. 13); St. Michael (Sept. 29), St. Denis (Oct. 9), St. Renatus, Bishop of Angers (Nov. 12).

The subjects of the miniatures are: 1. The Visitation of Elizabeth; 2. The Nativity; 3. The Announcement to the Shepherds; 4. The Adoration of the Magi; 5. The Presentation in the Temple; 6. The Flight into Egypt; 7. The Coronation of the Virgin.

RED, AND PROBABLY EXECUTED IN THE NORTH OF FRANCE. 165 leaves (5⅞ x 4½ inches). Ornamented with 37 LARGE and 6 SMALL MINIATURES, 19 historiated borders having scenes relating to the Life of Christ and the Virgin, and numerous initials in red, blue and gold. All the pages of the text have lateral borders of flowers and scrolls in colors on a dull gold ground. Small 8vo, old French green morocco, gilt dentelle borders on the sides, gilt edges, by Derome, with ticket, in a levant morocco slip case.

Sæc. XV.

* An interesting example of French Miniature Art of the period. Many of the larger illuminations are accompanied by small composite miniatures—on the lower or outer margins—representing Rural and Domestic Scenes, the characters in contemporary costume, while there is a remarkable series of large allegorical subjects representing the Seven Cardinal Sins, executed on the upper portions of 7 leaves. The execution and technique is fine, and the grouping of the figures depicted with the graceful ease of an accomplished artist. The Calendar has the following Saints in red: Hylarius (Jan. 13); Agatha (Jan. 5); Eupardius (July 2); Radegunda (Aug. 13). In the litanies are found: Cornelius, Dionysius, Mauritius, martyrs; Fiacre, Louis, Fortunatus, Clodoaldus, Guillermus, confessors; Florentia, Catharina, Radegunda, virgins.

2136. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS, secundum usum Romanum. A FRENCH MANUSCRIPT OF THE LATTER PART OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN NEAT ROMAN CHARACTERS, the rubrics in red and blue on 119 leaves of vellum (7½″ x 4⅞″). 16 LARGE MINIATURES, surrounded by borders of fruit, flowers, birds and grotesques in brilliant colors on dull, gold ground, 20 small Miniatures of Evangelists and Saints, including S. Sebastian suffering martyrdom, S. Roche, showing his wound to the angel, with dog bringing bread, S. Fiacre with open book, S. Margaret devoured by demon, etc., 24 MINIATURES IN THE KALENDAR, the subjects being rural scenes, and the Zodiacal signs, arranged two in the outer margins and two at the foot of each page, within gold architectural borders, each leaf within a narrow border of red, blue and burnished gold, the initials and paragraph spaces also illuminated throughout. Small 8vo, red levant morocco, gilt and blind tooling on sides, doublure of light blue morocco, gilt edges, by Bretault.

Sæc. XV.

* The Kalendar, which is of unusual composition and beauty, presents a striking appearance, the miniatures being executed with peculiar charm and richness. It mentions S. Eufemie, S. Gerematus (May 18 and Sept. 24), S. Processus, S. Ebrulfus, etc. The suffrage to S. Roche has been crossed through in a later hand, and in this connection it is interesting to note on one of the fly-leaves the following inscription possibly by the same hand: "Fr. Paulus Vicarius sanctæ Inquisitionis vidit."

HOURS OF ANNE DE BEAUJEU.

2137. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Romanum cum calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF FRENCH EXECUTION WRITTEN IN LETTRES BÂTARDES IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY. On 332 leaves of fine vellum (5 3/4 x 4 3/16 inches). Beautifully ornamented with 24 SMALL MINIATURES in the Calendar, representing the occupations of the months and the signs of the Zodiac, the letter in camaïeu bleu; 107 MAGNIFICENT FULL-PAGE MINIATURES, and many hundred illuminated initials. Small square 8vo, old French red morocco, gilt tooled panelled sides, central and corner ornaments, gilt edges, possibly by Le Gascon, in a morocco slip case.

Sæc. XV.

* A VERY REMARKABLE MANUSCRIPT EXECUTED FOR THE "REGENTA," ANNE DE BEAUJEU, DAUGHTER OF KING LOUIS XI. OF FRANCE, whose portrait appears several times, both in her own person and as the Virgin Mary (folios 7, 42, 98, 105, 253), while in several landscapes is a representation of her favorite residence, the Château de Loches (folios 77, 108, 126, 144, and 211). The figure of David in armor (folios 269 and 307), with blond hair and beard, appears to be the portrait of Pierre de Beaujeu, her husband.

THE MINIATURES IN THIS MANUSCRIPT WERE PAINTED BY SEVERAL ARTISTS OF THE SCHOOL OF TOURAINE, THE FINEST BEING UNDOUBTEDLY THE WORK OF JEHAN FOUCQUET, who, in 1477 (the probable date of execution of the volume), was about sixty years of age. The composition of the paintings, the richness and elaboration of architectural detail, the predilection for blue in the coloring of the costumes, and the lavish use of gold, especially in armor, are all characteristic of Foucquet. Moreover, the face of St. Luke (folio 29 v.) resembles the enamel portrait of him in the Louvre.

The variety of subjects in this manuscript, including secular and Biblical scenes from both the Old and the New Testament, make it one of the most interesting in the present collection.

The names of the following saints are written in red in the Calendar: St. Vincent (22 Jan.); Saint Gregoire (12 March); St. Nicholas (9 May); St. Urban (25 May); St. Eloy (25 June); St. Denis (9 Oct.); St. Katherine (25 Nov.); and St. Ursin (29 Dec.).

For a detailed description of this splendid manuscript see the "Catalogue des manuscrits et imprimés de la Bibliothèque de M. Ambroise Firmin-Didot," Paris, 1882, no. 17, to whom the volume belonged.

2138. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Romanum, cum calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE END OF THE 15TH CENTURY, FINELY WRITTEN IN NEAT GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, THE WORK OF A FLEMISH ARTIST. 209 leaves (4 1/8 x 3 1/16 inches). ILLUMINATED WITH 32 LARGE AND SMALL MINIATURES; 73 BORDERS composed of flowers, birds, animals, insects, fruits, jewels, skulls, grotesques, etc. painted in brilliant colors on a ground of dull gold, the 24 surrounding the calendar having a small circular painting in the lower part representing alternately the occupations of the months and the signs of the Zodiac, and numerous large and small illuminated ornamental initials. 16mo, old black morocco, the sides ornamented with chased silver borders and central medallions containing small heads, clasps, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

* A MOST EXQUISITE LITTLE MANUSCRIPT. The miniatures are the work of a distinguished artist of the school of Bruges (probably a pupil of Memling), and show purity of design, delicacy of color and technique, and realistic charm of expression. The figure of the Saviour, the Virgin, the Annunciation and the Coronation of the Virgin are the most remarkable.

The origin of the manuscript is shown also in the Calendar, which contains a large number of saints especially venerated in Flanders, e. g., St. Aldegonde, founder of the abbey of the canonesses of Maubeuge; St. Amand, Bishop of Maëstricht and one of the patrons of the city of Gand; St. Medard, Bishop of Tournai; St. Willibald; St. Lambert, patron of Liège; and St. Hubert, first Bishop of that city.

From the J. J. de Bure, Firmin Didot and Baron de La Roche Lacarelle collections.

2139. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ad usum Parisiensem. A RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, written in gothic (bâtardes) characters on 145 leaves of vellum (8¾ in. x 5¾ in.), 19 BEAUTIFUL MINIATURES occupying three-quarters of the page, 9 miniatures of medium size at the end of the various hours, with a scroll inscribed to designate the Hour following, 20 small miniatures of Evangelists and Saints and 12 REMARKABLY FINE MINIATURES in the kalendar emblematic of the Months of the year, also the signs of the Zodiac, every page surrounded with a border composed of fruit, flowers, foliage, scrolls, and decorative arabesques, in compartments of gold, blue, red and white, on heavy gold or dark blue grounds in both Flemish and Italian arabesque styles. Large 8vo, velvet binding, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

* AN UNUSUALLY BRILLIANT MANUSCRIPT, apparently painted by a Flemish artist under French influence (school of Touraine). The Miniatures are executed with great skill, and that of "The three living and three dead"—the former on horseback—as well as two of the smaller ones, the Virgin Mary seated at the handloom weaving, and the Mater Dolorosa pierced with swords, calling for special mention.

The scenes in the Kalendar dipict with life-like reality various customs and manners of the period. February reveals the master of the house, his shoes off, warming his feet by the fire; May, the betrothed seated together on a white horse, with attendant behind; October, sowing wheat, and December killing the wild boar, with domestics assisting, the costumes in each instance delineated with remarkable accuracy. The arms of the original owner appear in 3 places, while two small portraits are included at the foot of the borders of fol. 89—recto and verso. The Kalendar, which is in French, mentions S. Spire in red (April 26), Rigobert, Baltild, Longinus, Gauchere, Eleuthere, Gorgon, Gobert, &c.

An indication of more recent ownership is the inscription "Di Casa Minutoli Tegrimi" stamped in the margins of two or three pages.

2140. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS secundum usum Romanum, cum Calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTER IN RED AND BLACK EXECUTED BY A FLEMISH ARTIST. 176 leaves (5 x 3½ inches). Beautifully ornamented with 13 LARGE AND 16 SMALL MINIATURES, 20 borders composed of flowers, insects, animals, etc., delicately painted on a dull gold or grey ground; and numerous initials floriated in "camaïeu d'or" and "camaïeu gris," or painted in blue, red, and gold. Small 8vo, blue velvet; with engraved silver-gilt corner-pieces and clasps, silk linings, gauffred gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

2141. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS. AN ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE LATER PART OF THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS ON 120 LEAVES OF FINE VELLUM (6⅝ x 4⅝ inches), 12 MINATURES, within borders of scrolls, flowers, birds and animals, in colors on gold ground, and 3 SMALL MINIATURES, the initials in gold and colors throughout, with musical notation on 52 pages at the end. Small 8vo, old black morocco, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

* The above was written for Catherine Hierault de Chiverny, whose arms are quartered with those of the Poncher family at the foot of folio 83. On the same page appears in gold "Sensuivent les Vigiles des trespasses en chant et notte," after which nearly every page contains Gregorian notation—unusual for a manuscript of this description. The Kalendar mentions Translation of S. Thomas Aquinas (Jan. 28), Katherine of Siena (May 7) and S. Dominic (May 24 and Aug. 5), all in red, while the Litany invokes SS. Denis, Maurice, Louis and Genevieve.

2142. HORÆ BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS secundum usum Romanæ Ecclesiæ. A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT OF THE EARLY PART OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY, written in Roman characters on 113 leaves of vellum (8¼ x 5⅝ inches), 16 EXQUISITE MINIATURES, some occupying the whole page, 26 SMALL MINIATURES of the Evangelists and Saints, 16 illuminated borders composed of flowers, birds and insects, in brilliant colors on gold ground, or scrolls, arabesques and ornaments in the Italian style, painted in camaïeu d'or on ground of deep red, blue and green. Large 8vo, old red morocco, dentelle borders, gilt edges, in the style of Dérome, in morocco slip-case. Sæc. XVI.

* This Manuscript appeared successively in the sales of Giradot de Préfond, La Vallière and the Hamilton Collection. It has been described by several bibliographers and art critics (including De Bure, Duplessis, Durrien, Springer, and Seidlitz), and has been variously attributed to "Italy in 1524," Clouet, Lucas van Leyden and Geoffroy Tory. The last-named appears to have the premier claim, for the text agrees to the Livres d'Heures printed by him, and Bernard records that after 1514 he established himself in Paris, painting miniatures in MSS.

The Miniatures, which are elaborate in composition and original in treatment, are painted with the utmost delicacy, and comprise subjects worthy of notice. That of the Virgin and Child in the sky appearing as a vision to a group of Court Ladies and Nobles in a village street, is a scene of much variety and brilliance; the Angels appearing to the 7 shepherds (one of whom is a woman) has a beautiful landscape in the background; The Presentation in the Temple depicts several women garbed in early Sixteenth Century costumes; Christ bearing the Cross, with soldiers in armor of the period, and David and Bathsheba, the latter attended by ladies in court costume and the messenger from the King. These are all surrounded by a broad gold border, one of which bears the date 1524. The small miniatures include S. Sebastian shot with arrows, S. Denis holding his scalp after martyrdom, S. Claudius, and S Anthony with bell and staff.

The FRESHNESS AND RICHNESS OF THESE BEAUTIFUL MINIATURES LEAVE NOTHING TO BE DESIRED, AND IT IS A MOST CHARMING SPECIMEN OF SIXTEENTH CENTURY ART OF ILLUMINATION.

2143. HORATIUS. OPERA. cum commentario Acronis. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE END OF THE 15TH CENTURY, ELEGANTLY WRITTEN IN HUMANISTIC CHARACTERS OF TWO SIZES BY AN ITALIAN SCRIBE, AND PROBABLY EXECUTED AT VENICE 141 leaves (11¼ x 7 9/16 inches). Ornamented with an exquisite frontispiece in saffron-colored vellum painted in the manner of Mantegna in "camaïeu" heightened with gold, and representing a faun and a satyr playing the flute, at each side of a tablet bearing in gold letters the "Incipit" of the first book of the "Carmina," followed by the inscription "M. ANTONIVS MAVROCENVS PATRICIVS VENET. SIBI ET SVIS. V. F."; the first page surrounded by a magnificent semi-border of interlaced white scrolls on blue, red, gold and brown ground, with the arms of the Morosini family supported by two angels in the lower part, 5 other semi-borders and 11 large initials, all illuminated in the same manner, and the headings of each division written in gold, blue and red and brown capitals. Folio, old vellum, in a morocco slip case. Sæc. XV.

* A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT, evidently written and illuminated by order of the illustrious Venetian Patrician and litterateur Marco Antonio Morosini, the protector of Aldus, as shown by the inscription on the frontispiece and his arms in the first border.

2144. JARRY (NICOLAS). Airs Nouveaux de la Cour. Escripts par N. Jarry. Alto and Bass. A BEAUTIFULLY WRITTEN MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, containing twenty-three songs, the words and music of which were composed by NICOLAS JARRY, who also executed the manuscript. 25 leaves (7¼ x 4¾ inches). On the first page the arms of a Lady of the Painel-Marcel family, painted in gold and colors, and on the recto of the second leaf the title in letters of shaded gold and red; each page within a gold border. 8vo.

[Paris: XVIIth Century]

* Red levant morocco tooled in a beautiful mosaic design of compartments in citron, blue, green, and red morocco, delicately tooled in pointillé scrolls and the crowned monogram of the Comte de Lurde several times repeated, doublure of red morocco tooled in panels of fillets, with corner ornaments (reproducing the design by Le Gascon, which was on the binding in 1853 when the manuscript was owned by J. J. de Bure), vellum guards, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet. In a blue levant morocco case, lined with chamois.

This binding is No. 7 of the 22 mosaic bindings executed by Trautz-Bauzonnet, whose manuscript note in regard to it is pasted on one of the preliminary leaves: "Les airs de la cour manuscrit Jarry appartenant à Monsieur le Comte de Lurde est la reliure qui m'a donné le plus de satisfaction et je la regarde comme une de mes meilleures productions. G. Trautz."

No. 6 of Baron Portalis' monograph on Jarry. From the libraries of Baron d'Heis, J. J. de Bure l'Aîné (whose signature, dated Jan. 15, 1826, is in one of the fly-leaves), and Count de Lurde.

2145. JOSEPHUS FLAVIUS. Antiquitates Judaicæ et de Bello Judaico libri. AN ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT OF THE 13TH CENTURY ON VELLUM, FINELY WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS, DOUBLE COLUMNS OF 42 LINES, AND EXECUTED BY A FRENCH SCRIBE. 348 leaves (17⅛ x 13 inches). Ornamented with 3 borders containing 27 small miniatures, a border of 13 grotesque ones, 24 LARGE INITIAL LETTERS (22 OF WHICH ARE FINELY HISTORIATED and others with borders), ILLUMINATED IN GOLD AND COLORS, and numerous painted capitals. Bound in 2 vols. folio, green levant morocco, blind toolings on the sides, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery. Sæc. XIII.

* A REMARKABLY FINE EARLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT. In accordance with the early date of this MS. (first half of the XIIIth century), the compositions of the various scenes are of primitive character, and in the earliest Gothic style. The initial letter on page 1 is ornamented with ten circles, in which is represented the History of the Creation, on a ground of gold. The heads and hands of all the figures in the miniatures are most delicately drawn with the pen and lightly colored, while the delineations of the costumes are drawn in stronger outline. The color of the costumes is chiefly red, brown and blue. (W. von Seidlitz Repertorium Kunst fur Wissenschaft, vol. VI, p. 265.)

From the library of the Carthusian monastery at Dijon, and from the Hamilton collection (Hamilton MSS., no. 361). The volumes were rebound later by Mr. Hoe.

2146. JOSEPHUS FLAVIUS. Les Anciennetez des Juifs, translatés en François. Livres I–XIV. A FRENCH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, VERY NEATLY WRITTEN IN "LETTRES BÂTARDES" IN RED AND BLACK, DOUBLE COLUMNS. 308 leaves (14⅝ x 10 13/16 inches), 35 lines to the page. ORNAMENTED WITH 13 FINE LARGE MINIATURES, (about 8 x 7 inches), 153 very delicately painted and illuminated initials, some with short marginal decorations, the first having a miniature portrait of the author, and many hundred smaller ones. Folio, old French brown morocco, the sides elaborately tooled and gilt in geometrical compartments, the spaces filled with scrolls and arabesques, gilt edges, by Clovis Eve, in a morocco slip case. Sæc. XV.

* A SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT, the large miniatures of fine coloring and brilliant illumination. The picture representing the building of the temple is the same, with very slight variations, as that engraved by M. Barrois in his "Bibliothèque Protypographique." The costumes of the figures and the armor of the soldiers are exceptionally good.

From the libraries of Nicholas Joseph Foucault, John Towneley of Towneley (with the bookplates of both), and Lord Ashburnham.

2147. JUVENALIS ET PERSIUS. Satyræ. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, FINELY WRITTEN IN SEMI-GOTHIC CHARACTERS, BY AN ITALIAN SCRIBE. 83 leaves (12¾ x 7 inches). Ornamented with a full-page miniature and two elaborate borders of interlaced white scrolls on a ground of blue, red and green, introducing animals, etc., outlined by gold bands, the one surrounding the first page having an Italian coat of arms, "azur," a sheaf of wheat "or"; also 22 large initials in gold and colors. Folio, dark blue levant morocco, gilt mosaic ornaments of olive, maroon and citron morocco on the sides, gilt mosaic back, doublure of vellum, dentelle borders, gilt edges, by Mercier, in a case. Sæc. XV.

* A FINE MANUSCRIPT. The full-page miniature represents the nine Muses standing near the fountain of Helicon singing to the accompaniment of lutes; in the background is Pegasus on Mount Parnassus. On the verso of fol 69 v. is the following inscription: "Bernardinus excribi fecit amicis equaliter ac sibi;" and at the end: "Angelus scripsit."

2148. LYDGATE (JOHN). The Lyf of our Lady. An ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT, written on 111 leaves of vellum, (8½ x 6 inches), during the early part of the Fifteenth Century. Each division of the poem has a large initial letter of burnished gold on a colored ground, with ornaments and pen decorations in the margins, the chapter headings rubricated and numerous initials in red and blue. 8vo, old blue straight-grain morocco, gilt and blind tooled, gilt edges, by Kalthoeber. Sæc. XV.

* AN EARLY MANUSCRIPT OF A POEM BY A DISCIPLE OF CHAUCER, and one who for two centuries was considered nearly his equal. Lydgate is believed to have submitted his poems in MS. to Chaucer in the words of the above poem, to "amende and correcte the wrong traces" of his "rude penne" It was written at the invitation of King Henry V, and was printed by Caxton in 1484.

In the margin of the present Codex are pencil notes showing how the printed edition varies with this Manuscript and which stanzas Caxton omitted in his edition. The last three folios are by a later hand.

2149. MARTIALIS. Epigrammata. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY WRITTEN IN NEAT ITALIC CHARACTERS BY AN ITALIAN SCRIBE. 194 leaves (9⅛ x 5⅞ inches). The text of the first page written in gold, blue, red, green and violet, capitals within an elaborate architectural and ornamental border painted in blue, rose, green, and "camaïeu d'or," on a ground of violet; in the centre a beautiful S in gold historiated with three bambinos playing musical instruments, and on each side of the initial letter a Cupid wearing a bishop's hat and holding a coat of arms, "or," three "fasces sable," also 13 other fine initials in colors heightened with gold. 4to, red morocco, gilt-tooled borders and central ornaments in the style of a 15th century Florentine binding, gilt edges, by Bedford, in a morocco slip-case. Sæc. XV.

* A BEAUTIFUL ITALIAN MANUSCRIPT. From the R. S. Turner library.

2150. MEDITATIONS ON THE PASSION. Life of Christ, Rosary, Suffrages of the Saints, Litany, etc., with Kalendar. A late Fifteenth Century Manuscript, in Dutch, written in Gothic characters, 164 leaves of vellum (6½ x 4½ inches), 14 large and 55 half page miniatures; 18 small miniatures of Saints, each within a border of flowers and birds, on dull yellow ground, the initials in red and blue, with pen decorations in the margins. Small 8vo, light brown levant morocco extra, covered with a design of inlaid compartments of blue, containing small flowers in red, the intervening spaces filled with light green ornaments, surrounded with gold dots, doublure of vellum, gilt edges, by Mercier, in a morocco case. Sæc. XV.

* The miniatures, which include the martyrdom of S. Erasmus, are by two or more artists. Several are by Barnærdus abt (abbot) von Darendad, as may be seen from fol. 81, and they include The Mass of Gregory, The Symbols of the Passion, Crown of Thorns and Rosary (seven times repeated), Mary Magdalen anointing the feet of Jesus, and a Series of 30 Miniatures depicting the Passion, Crucifixion and Ascension. One of the borders depicts a small boy and girl, with wheelbarrow, from which spring the flowers which decorate the margin.

On the three preliminary blank leaves are Dutch arms, drawn in ink and early seventeenth century handwriting in Dutch, showing that this manuscript was once the property of Dirck van Nuissenborch of Desselt, near Dort (Dordrecht), who has here recorded his family genealogy. This record is continued on the verso of the last of the three final blank leaves.

2152. MINIATURES. A Series of 20 fine Miniatures, executed in Italy about the end of the 16th century, representing scenes from the Life and Passion of Christ, and pictures of Saints (3⅛ x 2 inches), mounted on vellum leaves, in a small 8vo volume, crimson velvet. Sæc. XVI.

2153. MINIATURES. A Series of 32 Miniatures of Initial Letters historiated with elegant figures, BEAUTIFULLY ILLUMINATED IN GOLD AND COLORS BY ARTISTS OF THE XIV-XVTH CENTURIES, apparently cut from Church-Service-Books, neatly mounted on black cardboard, in one volume. Square 4to, full brown morocco, blind-tooled carved ivory plaques set in silver inserted on the centre of the covers, the one on the front cover representing the adoration of the Magi, and that on the back the Crucifixion, four ivory bosses set in silver on both sides, silver clasp, gilt edges. Sæc. XIV.-XV.

* Among the subjects are a group of Dominican monks, SS. Peter and Paul, St. Mary Magdalene, St. Paul on the road to Damascus, St. Laurence, St. Stephen, and St. Vincent, the Virgin and Child, the Nativity, the Assumption of the Virgin, King David praying, the Ascension, four curious paintings of the Trinity, and Christ surrounded by saints. Eight of the illuminations are floriated initials.

The two ivory plaques which ornament the covers are of French workmanship, executed in the second part of the XIVth century.

2154. MIROUER HISTORIAL DE FRANCE. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM IN FRENCH AND LATIN, GOTHIC CHARACTERS EXECUTED IN FRANCE IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY. 132 leaves (11 9/16 x 8¾ inches). Ornamented with 5 FINE LARGE MINIATURES, 5 elegant borders of scrolls, fruits, flowers, birds and smaller grotesques, 36 large historiated initials, and hundreds of small ornamental ones, all illuminated in gold and colors. 4to, old calf over oak boards, gilt panelled sides, with brass bosses, corn-pieces, and clasps (rebacked) gilt edges; at the top of the front cover in a brass border under a horn-glass is the title of the work, written in Gothic characters. Sæc. XV.

* A VERY BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT EXECUTED FOR THE HOUSE OF THE DUKES OF BURGUNDY, AND PROBABLY FOR "PHILIPPE LE BON," as demonstrated by the arms of Burgundy painted in the borders, accompanied by the motto "NVL. NE. S'I FROTE."

The subjects of the miniatures are: 1. A King of France receiving the visit of an angel, the scene an open field in which grow the lilies of France; 2. Pope Innocent IV. giving indulgences to various Kings; 3. A Banquet; 4. The Tomb of Pepin with his effigy; 5. The coronation of Hugues Capet at Reims. The historiated initials, which are finely executed, contain portraits of the Kings of France. At the end of the table is a note written in red, and in the same character of the manuscript, recording the death of Charles VII, August, 1460.

CHARLES VI MISSAL.

2155. MISSALE ROMANUM. Written on 364 leaves of vellum (14¼ x 10½ in.) PROFUSELY DECORATED WITH ILLUMINATIONS, LARGE AND SMALL MINIATURES, BORDERS AND ORNAMENTAL CAPITALS. Folio, bound in the original wooden boards, re-covered with old brown velvet, doublure of the original leather binding, rebacked with modern brown morocco, corner pieces and clasps of chiselled and engraved silver of the 17th century with designs of hunting scenes, the deluge, the four Evangelists, entrance of the animals into the ark, etc.

Sæc. XIV.

* A MAGNIFICENT MANUSCRIPT. Executed at the instance of Charles VI of France, it was presented by that king to Henry V. of England on the occasion of the marriage of the latter to Catherine of Valois, daughter of Charles VI and Isabel of Bavaria, at the same time that the King of France declared the King of England heir to his kingdom. Later it was in the possession of Henry VI, Henry VII, and Henry VIII, but at the period of the suppression of the monasteries in England seemed to have passed into the ownership of Jean Legrand, and was sold by a certain Gilles in Antwerp for the account of Legrand to the manastery of Tongerloo. Here it remained for nearly three centuries, until 1869, when it was sold to M. Bachellin, the Paris bookseller, who transferred it to M. Didot. It was one of the most remarkable MSS. in the Didot sale (1879), and purchased by the Paris bookseller Fontaine, who sold it to the Comtesse Mniszeck (stepdaughter of Honoré de Balzac) for 100,000 frs. Later it was offered for sale by Thibaudeau at three thousand guineas, and finally came into the possession of Mr. Hoe.

Very few missals are so richly and copiously illustrated. There are no less than 107 MINIATURES, AROUND EACH OF WHICH ARE FOUR SMALLER MINIATURES, MAKING A TOTAL OF 529. There are several thousand large and small initials, and each page is surrounded by an exquisitely designed border. It is probable that more than one artist executed the miniatures, one of whom may have been Jehan Vandetar, specimens of whose work are exhibited at the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, and who shortly before the period when this Missal was executed, illuminated and illustrated a Bible for Charles V. However no indication is given of any of the painters, excepting that Flemish influence can be traced in many of the miniatures, all of which are of high artistic quality. There is a consistency in the treatment of the subjects, signifying a concerted scheme and constant supervision. The Saviour is represented throughout in a robe of cloth gold; the costumes are heightened with gold in every case where the reflection of light is intended; and the landcapes and architectural backgrounds are all based on the one general design. An interesting feature is that on some of the friezes in the architecture of the backgrounds are letters or inscriptions, which may have some significance. On the wall in the background of the thirty-second miniature (the Magdalen anointing the head of Jesus) is a series of letters and figures in which can be deciphered combinations of H and R (Henry Rex), ending with "VIII R." This would seem to indicate the eighth year of the reign of Henry V, very nearly corresponding to the date of the marriage of Henry V and Catherine of Valois, and the event for which this Missal was executed.

The first page represents a Gothic vaulted recess with hangings of blue tapestry, covered with devices of a K and the fleur-de-lys; in the centre and at each side rise three tall columns surmounted by an angel. The angel on the centre column holds a shield with the arms of Charles VI, and a banderolle on which is inscribed "Karolus VI Rex Franciæ," and at the bottom attached by a thong, is another shield with the joint arms of Charles VI and Isabel of Bavaria. The angel on the pillar on the left holds shields and banderolles of the feudatories of France—the Dukes of Burgundy, Aquitaine and Normandy, and the Counts of Flanders, Champagne and Toulouse. On the right the angel holds shields of the ecclesiastical lords of Rheims, Langres, Laon, Beauvais, Noyons and Chalons. On the second leaf is a broad floral border containing the shields of Henry V and Catherine of Valois quartering those of France and England. In the centre a Tabernacle of goldsmith's work holds the Holy Sacrament and stands on a Gothic altar, the background being of red tapestry with gold fleur-de-lys. Following the second leaf are three leaves of Table—"pour trouver les offices chascun iour par ordre," ending with "Messe de saint loys roy de france."

Many of the large miniatures are of unusual occurrence. In those instances where the subjects are repeated, they are of different composition and usually by a different artist. The two miniatures of S. Catherine emphasize the fact of its being for the Queen, and it is interesting to notice the number of French saints and martyrs represented.

THIS MANUSCRIPT IS NOT ONLY OF GREAT HISTORICAL IMPORTANCE, BUT OF REMARKABLE INTEREST ON ACCOUNT OF THE MAGNIFICENCE OF ITS EXECUTION AND THE PROFUSENESS OF THE MINIATURES.

2156. OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS secundum consuetudinem Romanæ Curiæ, cum Calendario. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE XVTH CENTURY FINELY WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, AND EXECUTED IN ITALY. 184 leaves (5⅛ x 3 11/16 inches). Embellished with a large miniature representing the three living and the three dead men, 6 borders composed of flowers, vases, birds and bambinos richly illuminated in gold and colors, including one with heads, 4 historiated and 9 ornamental initials on gold ground from which issue graceful lateral borders in colors and pen-and-ink scrolls, with gold dots, and hundreds of initials in gold and blue. 16mo, old French red morocco gilt, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

2157. OFFICIUM BEATÆ MARIÆ VIRGINIS ordinatum secundum Romanam Curiam, cum Calendario. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY WRITTEN IN SEMI-GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, EXECUTED IN ITALY. 140 leaves (6 5/16 x 4⅜ inches). Embellished with 15 LARGE MINIATURES, 25 unusual borders decorated with conventional flowers, peacocks, pheasants, partridges, lion, leopards, dragons and bambinos on a ground of thick foliage with tiny leaves in gold; 10 large historiated initials on gold ground, and numerous illuminated initials. 8vo, brown levant morocco, panelled sides, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

* The paintings are evidently by artists of the same school, but they vary in degree of skill. The composition is occasionally rudimentary, but the general effect is of careful attention to detail, particularly in facial expression.

The subjects of the miniatures include: St. Nicholas, St. Erasmus, God the Father teaching a prayer to a Burgundian Priest, and the SS. Peter and Paul.

Among the names written in red in the Calendar are found: St. Anthony (Jan. 17); St. Agatha (Febr. 5); St. Gregory (March 12); St. Benedict (March 21); St. Bernardino of Siena (May 20); SS. Vitus, Modestus, Crescentius (June 15); St. Donatus (August 7); St. Augustin (Aug. 28); Exaltation of the Cross (Sept. 14); SS. Cosmas and Damianus (Sept. 27); St. Martin (Nov. 11); St. Nicholas (Dec. 6).

For a more detailed description of the manuscript see the "Catalogue des manuscrits et imprimés" of Ambroise Firmin-Didot (1879, no. 12), to whom the volume belonged.

mental ones, all delicately painted in gold and colors. 16mo, blue velvet, in a morocco slip case. Carpi, 1498

* A BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF ITALIAN WORK OF THE END OF THE XVTH CENTURY. On the lower part of the first two borders are the arms of the Sfondrato family of Cremona, and probably this office was written and decorated for Francesco Sfondrato, who after his wife's death became Bishop of Cremona, and Cardinal in 1534.

On fol. 148r. is the following inscription in red "in castro Carpi die xxij-octobris Mcccclxxxxviij. per Sigismundum de Sigismondis, de Carpo." Sigismondo de'Sigismondi is described in Bradley's "Dictionary of miniaturists," as "one of the most distinguished copyists and calligraphers of his time."

2159. ONOSANDER. De Optimo Imperatore per Nicolaum Secundinum traductus e græco in Latinum. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WELL WRITTEN IN HUMANISTIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK BY A FLORENTINE SCRIBE. 69 leaves (8⅝ x 5½ inches). First page surrounded by a fine border of white interlaced scrolls on various colored grounds and surrounded by gold bands, with the first 13 lines written alternately in gold and blue capitals; 3 large initials illuminated in gold and colors of the same characters of the border, and numerous small gold capitals, on grounds of violet pen work. 4to, CONTEMPORARY FLORENTINE BINDING in oak boards, covered with red morocco, gilt panelled sides formed by borders of interlaced ornaments, centre ornaments, gilt edges (back restored). Sæc. XV.

* From the library of William Morris, with description of the book in his autograph, laid in. The binding is reproduced in facsimile in Horne's "Binding of Books."

2160. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. Hafiz. Divan. PERSIAN MANUSCRIPT OF THE 18TH CENTURY written in double columns within floral borders on gold ground on native thin glazed paper, the two first pages surrounded by beautiful borders in gold and colors, and with a full-page miniature. 225 leaves (5 9/16 x 3 7/16 inches). 12mo, contemporary Persian lacquered binding painted with flowers and foliage on the outside and inside covers, in a morocco slip case. 2162. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. Dala' il ul-Kheirat, Prayers for Mohammed in Arabic with interlinear Persian translation. PERSIAN MANUSCRIPT OF THE XVIIITH CENTURY, beautifully written within lines of gold on native-glazed paper, and decorated with gorgeously-illuminated pages in gold and colors in which are represented the Kaabah at Mecca and the Mosque of Medina; 134 leaves (7 11/16 x 5 1/16 inches) in 8vo, contemporary Persian lacquer binding, elaborately painted with flowers heightened with gold, in morocco slip case. Sæc. XVIII.

* From two seals stamped on pages the volume appears A. H. 1217 (A. D. 1802), to have belonged to Husain, and A. H. 1226 (A. D. 1811), to Murad Khan, and by him presented to Nasrullah Khan.

2163. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. A volume of 60 BRILLIANTLY PAINTED INDIAN AND PERSIAN MINIATURES, largely portraits of the Mogul dynasty, women and dervishes, executed upon native gazed paper; each miniature surrounded by a border of gold and colors, and upon the back of the miniatures elaborately written poems (11 15/16 x 8¼ inches). Folio, rich Persian lacquered binding, the covers painted outside and inside with conventional flowers and foliage, gilt edges. Sæc. XVIII.

2164. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. A Series of 28 finely executed Persian miniatures representing religious, domestic, musical and battle scenes, including Holy men, Rajahs, Dancers, etc. (15⅛ x 10¾ inches.) Bound in one vol. folio, straight-grain red morocco, gilt edges, by Hering. Sæc. XVIII.

2165. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. A SET OF 24 LARGE MINIATURES (11½ x 7⅜ inches), apparently representing Fath Ali and the members of his family and his court, painted in Persia by a native artist, on a succession of detached leaves, folding to a small folio shape. Persian lacquered binding, two pictures of the Shah and his court on the covers, and a floral design on the inside in a silk wrapper. [Ispahan, about 1820?]

2166. ORIENTAL MANUSCRIPT. A volume containing 54 remarkable PERSIAN INDIA MINIATURES (11 5/16 x 8⅛ inches) of Rulers, Women, Equestrian, court and domestic scenes, flowers, &c., alternating with 25 pages of explanatory text. Small folio, old Persian red morocco, gilt ornaments on the sides, gilt edges, doublures of red morocco, gilt edges. Sæc. XVIII.

* Each painting has two figures, usually male and female. Among the subjects represented are a torch-bearer, soldier, goldsmith, a nautch girl, snake charmer, coolie, etc.

THE ANNE DE BRETAGNE OVID.

2168. OVIDIUS NASO (PUBLIUS). Les XXI Epistres des Dames Illustres, traduictes d'Ouide par le Reuerend Pere en Dieu: Monseig. L'Evesque de Angoulesme. A LATE FIFTEENTH CENTURY MANUSCRIPT OF THE FRENCH POETICAL VERSION OF OVID'S EPISTOLÆ HEROIDUM, ASCRIBED TO OCTAVIAN DE SAINT-GELAIS, Bishop of Angoulême (1494-1502), written in gothic (bâtardes) characters upon 130 leaves of vellum (9½ in. x 6½ in.). TWENTY-ONE HALF-PAGE MINIATURES, WITHIN ORNAMENTAL BORDERS, small 4to, old red morocco gilt panels enclosing small tooled ornaments, gilt edges, in morocco case. [ca. 1499]

* A SPLENDID AND MOST REMARKABLE MANUSCRIPT OF GREAT HISTORICAL INTEREST, presumably executed for Louis XII. and Anne of Brittany, the miniature on fol. 46 apparently a portrait of the Queen (resembling that in the famous "Livre d'Heures d'Anne de Bretagne") and that on fol. 112 resembles the head of Louis XII. found on coins of the period.

The miniatures, which are painted in the best style of the French Renaissance and delineated with so much individuality, are undoubtedly portraits from life, some of them probably Maids of Honor to the Queen. They are interesting as depicting the costumes of the period, and are executed in manner precisely similar to that of the above-mentioned "Livre d'Heures." All of the subjects are—with three exceptions—half-length figures and represent the Heroines in the work itself, the "Heriodes or Epistles of the Heroines" consisting of supposed letters of famous women written to their absent husbands or lovers.

The artists have not reproduced men and women of classical antiquity, but have chosen to paint their own contemporaries, so that they cannot be mistaken for imaginary creations. Several are naturally depicted in the act of writing, and Phèdre is standing holding a quill pen, which she is cutting, to the light, with a knife in her left hand. The portrait of Louis XII—represented as suffering and feeble—is peculiarly truthful in delineation, while the only other male character—a beautiful portrait of a young man—might conceivably be Charles VIII., "l'affable," first husband of Anne de Bretagne, who died in 1498, aged 28 years. The title, which was painted at a later date than the body of the book, is in an architectural border of camaïeu d'or containing at the top a medallion of Ovid in a red robe on a blue ground.

2169. OVIDIUS. Artis Amatoriæ libri III; Remediorum Amoris liber; Heroides seu Epistolæ XXI; Amorum libri III, etc. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WRITTEN BY AN ITALIAN SCRIBE. 203 leaves (5⅞ x 3 inches). Embellished by 8 borders in the style of the Italian Renaissance, the first painted in "camaïeu d'or" on a ground of crimson, blue and green, an Italian coat of arms in the lower part; the other borders are painted in red and green, etc., heightened with gold, on a blue ground; and illuminated initials. 12mo, citron levant morocco, mosaic back, doublure of blue morocco, gilt borders of leaf-sprays, with mosaic ornaments, gilt edges, by Lortic, in a case. Sæc. XV.

* On the recto of the last leaf is the following inscription by a hand of the 16th century: "Dono accepit Augustinus Amodeus a D. Dominico Seglia." From the library of A. Firmin-Didot.

2170. PETRARCA (FRANCESCO) Sonetti, Canzoni e Trionfi. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE SECOND HALF OF THE 15TH CENTURY, written in humanistic character, by an Italian scribe. 187 leaves (9 3/16 x 5⅝ inches). Embellished with TWO FULL-PAGE MINIATURES, one on saffron vellum and the other on purple vellum, 3 architectural and ornamental borders delicately painted in various colors, surrounding the beginnings of each part, which are alternately written in gold, blue, red and purple capitals. 4to, contemporary Florentine binding in calf, gilt and blind-tooled sides, centre medallions with heads, gilt edges (the original sides inlaid). Sæc. XV.

* The first miniature is in the form of an elaborate memorial tablet, in the upper part of which are the portraits of Petrarch and Laura; at the left stands Apollo, playing the lyre. The second miniature, which is at the beginning of the Trionfi, is symbolical of the Triumph of Love. One of the borders is somewhat rubbed.

2171. PETRARCA (FRANCESCO). Rime. ITALIAN MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE EARLY PART OF THE 16TH CENTURY, finely written in small italic characters. 186 leaves (6 9/16 x 4⅜ inches). 8vo, contemporary Italian binding in red morocco, panelled sides, with borders and centre ornaments gilt tooled in a Moorish design, gilt edges (skilfully rebacked), and clasps in a morocco slip case. Sæc. XVI.

* The manuscript is divided in three parts, the first page of the text of each being written in capital letters in blue, red, and gold, and surrounded by borders of architectural design containing figures, garlands, etc., painted in colors and camaïeu d'or. The second border contains at the top an exquisite little miniature representing a stag with a woman's face pursued by two greyhounds, an allegorical illustration of the seventh stanza of Canzone 21. The third border is painted in camaïeu d'or with a scene in gold and colors at the foot: Love triumphant riding on a burning chariot followed by vanquished couples. On the opposite page is a full-page miniature of a similar theme painted upon saffron-colored vellum in camaïeu d'or and pale green. The poet, in a hooded robe, with a companion, views the procession from a neighboring hill.

The first seven leaves of the volume contain an alphabetical index of the first lines of the poems. There are numerous capital letters in blue and burnished gold, also variants and Greek characters on the margins.

2172. PRIÈRES a la Vierge. FRENCH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE EARLY PART OF THE 15TH CENTURY, writtten in Gothic character. 27 leaves (7½ x 5⅜ inches). Embellished with 4 MINIATURES painted on a checquered background in blue, red and gold, 4 borders and 50 semiborders in pen and ink tracery, foliage sprays, etc., and numerous initials elegantly illuminated in gold and colors. Small 4to, old French red morocco, the sides tooled and gilt in compartments, "à l'éventaille" in the manner of Le Gascon (skilfully rebacked), gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

2173. PSALTERIUM, cum Calendario. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, EXECUTED IN ENGLAND IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE 13TH CENTURY. 117 leaves (8 x 5⅜ inches). Ornamented with 16 SMALL CIRCULAR MINIATURES ON GOLD GROUND on the margin of the calendar representing the occupations of the months and the signs of the Zodiac, 10 large historiated and ornamental initials illuminated in gold and colors, and numerous illuminated capitals. 4to, brown levant morocco, inlaid ornaments of brown morocco, stamped in gold on the centre and corners of the cover, in an embroidered linen bag. Sæc. XIII.

* A FINE EXAMPLE OF AN ENGLISH THIRTEENTH CENTURY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT. In the Calendar are found St. Eadmundus, St. Columbanus, and St. Thomas à Becket, the last written in red (2 leaves of the Kalendar and another leaf missing. On the last fly-leaf are written two French prayers, one in verse, by a hand of the 14th century.

2174. PSALTERIUM ET HYMNARIUM. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE END OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WELL WRITTEN IN "LETTRES BÂTARDES," BY A FRENCH SCRIBE. 257 leaves (8⅛ x 5¼ inches). Embellished with 12 small miniatures in the Calendar, representing the signs of the Zodiac, 8 borders of flowers, leaves, scrolls and grotesques, delicately painted on a dull gold ground, and hundreds of illuminated initials of various sizes. Small 4to, old French red morocco, the sides and back covered with a "semis" of gilt eagles and lions, THE ARMS OF CHARLES BRISARD-TIVILLE, COUNCILLOR IN THE PARLIAMENT OF PARIS, on the centre of both covers, gilt edges, in a morocco slip case. Sæc. XV.

* From the library of R. S. Turner, with book-plate.

2175. PSALTERIUM, Cantica, Symbolum S. Athanasii, Litaniæ Sanctorum, Orationes, etc., cum Calendario. MS. ON VELLUM, WRITTEN IN WELL-FORMED GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, BY A SPANISH SCRIBE. 236 leaves (9 9/16 x 6½ inches). Ornamented with 12 fine large historiated initials illuminated in gold and colors, 12 exquisite illuminated borders composed of flowers, birds, animals, etc., in the Italian Renaissance style and 7 large floriated initials. 4to, old red velvet, gilt edges. Sæc. XV.

* Of the 12 historiated initials, 5 represent David in different scenes, 2 are of God the Father, one depicts a Mass in which two Bishops are officiating, and the others are of the Evangelist. The first initial is larger than the other, and the first border has in the lower part a coat of arms. The rubric on fol. 222 is in the Catalan dialect, which indicates the nationality of the scribe.

2176. PSALTER. Le David Moderne, ou la Traduction en vers des Sept Pseaumes de dom Antoine Roy de Portugal, dediée au Roy (Louis XIV.) par Mr. de Vertron. A French Manuscript in neat italic characters, on 41 leaves of vellum (261 mm. x 188 mm.), arabesque border on title and 18 similar head-pieces and culs-de-lampe, the headings and initials in burnished gold. 4to, contemporary red morocco, the arms of Louis XIV. in gold on sides, gilt edges. 1703

2177. RANDOLPH (THOMAS). A Small volume of old English Manuscript Poems by Thomas Randolph and his friends Ben Jonson, Dr. Henry King (also Friend of Izaac Walton), Robert Thompson, Thomas Freeman, and others; also a Poem of 4 stanzas "Human Life Charactered," by Francis (Bacon) Viscount St. Albans, commencing "The world's a bubble, and the life of man, less than a span"; a Poem "On a very deformed gentlewoman, but of voice incomparably sweete," etc. Neatly written in an early Seventeenth Century hand on 32 pages, small 4to, boards. Sæc. XVII.

2178. RITUALE ad usum sororum Ordinis S. Dominici. MS. ON VELLUM OF THE 15TH CENTURY, WRITTEN IN GOTHIC CHARACTERS IN RED AND BLACK, WITH MUSIC NOTED ON FOUR LINES, AND EXECUTED IN FRANCE. 139 leaves (6 7/16 x 4½ inches). Ornamented with 5 large and 2 small miniatures, all but one within architectural borders of shaded gold, blue, and red, 12 borders of foliage and scrolls in blue, red and gold, and numerous illuminated half borders and initials. 8vo, brown levant morocco, blind-tooled borders on the sides, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru, in an embroidered silk bag. Sæc. XV.

* Among the subjects represented in the miniatures are the Betrayal, the Last Supper, the Mass of S. Gregory, Martyrdom of St. Agnes, the Scourging of St. Catherine, and her beheading. At the foot of the first border are the arms of the original owner (parti: au I. d'azur à trois étoiles d'or au 2. de gueules au cerf d'argent).

2179. SAUVAIGE (ALEXANDRE). L'Etiquette des temps ou les memorables choses de tous les temps, addressée a François de Rochechouart, conseiller et chambellan de Louis XII. FRENCH MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM OF THE 16TH CENTURY, NEATLY WRITTEN IN "LETTRES BÂTARDES." 121 leaves (13⅞ x 8 11/16 inches). EMBELLISHED WITH 3 EXQUISITE LARGE MINIATURES, in pen and ink; 127 large initials, each letter in gold on a ground of very delicate pen and ink ornamentation in black and white (a few are in colors), at the head of nearly every initial an historical miniature also in pen and ink connected with the subject of the chapter. Folio, old English red straight-grain morocco, gilt-tooled floral borders on the sides, gilt edges. Sæc. XVI.

* A BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT EXECUTED FOR FRANCOIS DE ROCHECHOUART, to whom it is dedicated, and whose arms are emblazoned in several places. The large miniatures represent: 1. the Creation of Adam and Eve, and two other episodes in the Creation; 2. A battle of the Romans under Julius Cæsar against the Gauls; 3. The Prophecy of the Sibyl Tiburtina to the Emperor Octavianus. The first page of the text is surrounded by an ornamental semi-border in pen and ink, containing eight small medallions, seven of which represent scenes from the Old Testament, and one has the Rochechouart arms. The subjects of the small miniatures are chiefly biblical, classical and mythological, many in the Greek and Roman costume of the period. ALL THE MINIATURES AND INITIALS ARE VERY HIGHLY FINISHED AND ARE EVIDENTLY THE WORK OF A SKILLED ARTIST. From the MacCarthy-Reagh and George Hibbert libraries.

2180. TRAICTÉ (LE) DE PEYNE POËME ALLEGORIQUE DÉDIÉ À MONSEGNEUR ET À MADAME DE LORRAYNNE, A FRENCH MANUSCRIPT on 20 leaves of vellum (6½ x 4¼ in.), clearly written in GOTHIC CHARACTERS, 16 MINIATURES IN CAMAÏEU GRIS, the one on the first leaf representing the authors composing their Poem a full page, the others depicting different scenes in their pilgrimage are half-page, the capitals and finials in gold on a black ground 12mo, morocco extra, gilt edges, by Trautz-Bauzonnet. Sæc. XVI.

* A delightful little Allegorical Poem written during the first half of the Sixteenth Century. The "Monseigneur de Lorraynne" to whom the poem is dedicated was presumably François, duc de Lorraine, who died in 1544, and the Château d'Arches, where the action takes place, is situated near Épinal, in the Vosges. The subjects of the Miniatures, which reveal the architecture and costumes of the period of François I., include a full-page representation of the three authors of the poem, poet, artist and scribe (who are also the heroes), seated at a writing-table composing the poem; all the others depict the same men, as pilgrims setting out on horseback, being received by the Seigneur and Dame de Lorraine (Goodwill and Charity); crossing the torrent of Penalty; their visit to the Castle of Sorrow; a bed-chamber in the castle, an invalid in the canopied bed; Understanding conducting them to the Steps of Healing; their departure through the Tower of Health.

The Manuscript was discovered in the Château de Guise in 1793, and the poem was published in Paris in 1867, with a preface by Eugène Paillet, in which it was pointed out that the execution of the Miniatures was not only extremely delicate but of considerable originality, while the artist painted what he saw every day (castles, interiors and costumes), and did not simply copy the ideas of others.

2181. TRIPPE (SIMON). Christianus Medicus, sive disceptatio quædam instituta adversus receptam publice opinionē bene medicum male christianum existere in qua cumprimis Galenus vindicatur a 4 calumniis. AN ENGLISH MANUSCRIPT OF THE LATTER PART OF THE XVITH CENTURY, on 87 leaves, ruled with red. Small 4to, contemporary English calf gilt, binding tooled in the Lyonnese manner, gilt edges. Sæc. XVI.

London: Printed by Ruth Raworth for Humphrey Moseley, 1645.

* First collected edition, and the first work bearing Milton's name. With an oval portrait, ætat. 21, by W. Marshall, containing a Greek inscription and intended by the poet as a satire on the engraver for representing him as of middle age. This is the first engraved portrait of Milton ever published.

This copy is described in Mr Hoe's catalogue as a presentation copy from Milton to Peter Heimbach, and on one of the fly-leaves is the following inscription: "Viro vere Egregio Poetae Eleganti. Florido Oratori. Acuto Philosopho. P. ab Heimbach I. C. Amico suo I. Milton Auth."

Peter Heimbach appears to have been an acquaintance of Milton's and is referred to in a letter from the poet dated November 8, 1656, "To the very accomplished youth Peter Heimbach," in which he refers to his undue stay in Holland and to his blindness—"vainly surveying as I do with blind eyes the actual globe of the earth."

2291. MILTON (JOHN). Poems, &c. upon Several Occasions. By Mr. John Milton: Both English and Latin, &c. Composed at several times. With a small Tractate of Education To Mr. Hartlib. Zinna (Tzenna). Press of the Cistercian Monastery. 1492

* A volume described as EXTREMELY RARE by Brunet. The work was probably printed for imperial presents only, and the impression limited to very few copies, the expense having been defrayed by the Emperor Frederick III and his son (afterwards Emperor Maximilian), whose figures (kneeling) are introduced in every border. The woodcuts, as Didot has remarked, are of more archaic type than the contemporary productions of Nürnberg, as indeed might be expected, South Germany being in advance of the North in artistic cultivation.

The indication of place and date of printing are extracted from the prologue. The monastery of Zinna was east of Magdeburg and North of Leipzig. Hain, 11891; Proctor, 3226.

2427. [NOBBES (ROBERT).] The Compleat Troller, or, the Art of Trolling. With A Description of all the Utensils, Instruments, Tackling, and Materials requisite thereto: With Rules and Directions how to use them, etc. By A Lover of the Sport. 12mo, calf gilt, gilt edges, by Bedford.

2641. POE (EDGAR ALLAN). Autograph Letter Signed "Edgar A. Poe." 2 pages, 4to, with leaf of address franked with initials. To F. W. Thomas. Dated from Philadelphia, November 19, 1842.

* A long letter relating to a political appointment Poe hoped to get under President Tyler at the Custom House.

"Your letter of the 14th gave me new hope—only to be dashed to the ground. On the day of its receipt some of the papers announced four removals and appointments. Among the latter I observed the name—Pogue. Upon inquiry I soon found that no such person as—Pogue had any expectation of an app't and that the name was a misprint or rather a misunderstanding of the reporters who had heard my own name spoken of at The Custom House. . . . It seems to me that the only way to serve me now is to procure a few lines from the President directing Mr. Smith to give me the place. With these credentials he would scarcely again refuse. But I leave all to your better judgment."

In the postscript Poe says: "Write soon & if possible relieve my suspense. You cannot imagine the trouble I am in & have been in for the last 2 months—unable to enter into any literary arrangements—or in fact to do anything—being in hourly expectation of getting the place."

2642. POE (EDGAR ALLAN). Autograph Letter Signed, 2 pp. 4to, New York, Feb. 29, 1848.

* A REMARKABLE AND APPARENTLY UNPUBLISHED LETTER in which Poe refers to the charges made against his being addicted to drink, and also outlines very fully his philosophical lecture, later expanded and published as "Eureka." After a few references to Willis, Colton, Graham, and Godey, Poe mentions the editor of the "Weekly Universe," who had described his habits as "shockingly irregular."

"He could not have had the personal acquaintance with me of which he writes, but has fallen into a very natural error. The fact is this: My habits are rigorously abstemious and I omit nothing of the natural regimen requisite for health: i. e. I rise early, eat moderately, drink nothing but water, and take abundant and regular exercise in the open air. But this is my private life—my studious and literary life—and of course escapes the eye of the world. The desire for society comes upon me only when I have become excited by drink. Then only I go —that is, at these times only I have been in the practice of going among my friends: who seldom, or in fact never, having seen me unless excited, take it for granted, that I am always so. Those who really know me, know better. In the meantime I shall turn the general error to account. But enough of this: the causes which maddened me to the drinking point are no more, and I am done drinking, forever." He then gives a resumé of the points of his lecture published in "Eureka," similar to that in a letter to Geo. E. Isbell of the same date, which has been published, but in this the propositions are given at greater length.

* The collation of the above agrees with the Huth copy, A–V in eights. It does not contain the "Quarleis" by Benlowes (which occupies X1–X8 and Y1–Y8).

2681. QUARLES (FRANCIS). Emblemes [and Hieroglyphics of the Life of Man]. By Fra: Quarles. Engraved title to the Emblems and seventy-eight engravings by Wm. Marshall and W. Simpson, also an engraved title to the "Hieroglyphics," and fifteen engravings by Marshall (one letter on p. 93 obliterated). 8vo, original calf binding, gilt sides.

London: Printed by I. D. for Francis Eglesfeild. 1639

* Second edition. One of only three copies known containing the blank leaf X1 lacking in the Huth copy, also the blank Bb4. This edition appears to be unknown to bibliographers, who mention the edition of 1643 as the second of the "Emblems." The two works are here first published together with continuous pagination and signatures.

who had this copy bound for Mary Curteyne and marked with her initials.

Third edition of the "Divine Fancies," with preliminary and final blank leaves.

The date on the title of "Argalus and Parthenia" has been erased, but as the address to the reader is dated "Dublin this 4 of March. 1628," this edition is probably the second, described by Lowndes as without date except that of the address, and containing a frontispiece engraved by Cecill and 153 pages.

2684. QUARLES (FRANCIS). Enchyridion containing Institutions—Divine, Contemplative, Practicall, Ethycall, Institutions—Œconomical, Political. 12mo, red levant morocco gilt, sides in gold and mosaic tooled to a "Cottage" pattern, gilt edges, by Rivière.

Printed at London by T. Cotes, 1641

* First Edition of the two parts. The first book was published in 1640.

2685. QUARLES (FRANCIS). Observations concerning Princes and States, upon Peace and Warre. Small 4to, red morocco, by The Club Bindery.

London: Printed for John Sweeting, 1642

2686. QUARLES (FRANCIS). The Loyall Convert. 4to, brown levant morocco, centre ornaments on the sides, uncut, by Rivière.

Oxford: Printed by Leonard Lichfield, Printer to the University, 1643.

* First Edition. This work, often erroneously called "The Royal Convert," is a pamphlet justifying the employment of Roman Catholics in the royal army. The suggestion so excited the indignation of Parliament that the author's entire property, including books and manuscripts, was confiscated. The apparently seditious character of the pamphlet would account for its rarity.

The above and the Griswold copy, sold in 1878, are the only recorded copies. (A1-2, probably blanks, missing.)

2687. QUARLES (FRANCIS). The Shepheards Oracle. Small 4to, citron levant morocco gilt, gilt sides, by The Club Bindery (lower corner of title repaired).

SHAKESPEARE QUARTOS.

2970. SHAKESPEARE. The Chronicle History of Henry the fift, with his battell fought at Agin Court in France. Together with ancient Pistoll. As it hath bene sundry times playd by the Right Honourable the Lord Chamberlaine his Servants. ROXBURGH ARMS ON BACK OF TITLE. Small 4to, brown levant morocco, doublure of olive levant morocco covered with rich gilt foliage and scroll tooling, gilt edges by Marius Michel. (Measuring 6⅝ x 4½ in.)

Printed for T. P., 1608

* Third edition, printed by Thomas Pavier. From the study which has been recently made respecting old collected volumes of Shakespeare Quartos, it is interesting to know that the FIVE FOLLOWING LOTS were originally bound together, and that at one time the volume was in the Library of the Duke of Roxburgh. The plays are: Henry the Fifth, 1608, King John 1611, Hamlet 1611, Henry IV, 1613, and Richard the Second 1615. The first in date (Henry V) has the Roxburgh arms stamped on the back of the title apparently indicating that it was the first in the volume.

2971. [SHAKESPEARE]. The First and second Part of the troublesome Raigne of John King of England. With the discouerie of King Richard Cordelions Base sonne (vulgarly named, The Bastard Fawconbridge:) Also, the death of King John at Swinstead Abbey. As they were (sundry times) lately acted by the Queenes Maiesties Players. Written by W. Sh. Small 4to, with the original blank leaf, red levant morocco, gilt back, gilt edges, by Rivière. (Measuring 6⅞ x 4⅞ inches.)

Imprinted at London by Valentine Simmes for John Helme, 1611.

* Second edition of this play. It was used by Shakespeare for his own play of King John, which appeared for the first time in the First Folio 1623.

2972. SHAKESPEARE. The Tragedy of Hamlet, Prince of Denmarke. By William Shakespeare. Newly imprinted and enlarged to almost as much againe as it was, according to the true and perfect Coppy. Small 4to, brown morocco back and sides covered with the Tudor Rose repeated in gold, the intervals thickly studded with stars, doublure of green silk, corner ornaments on brown morocco, silk guards, gilt edges, in green levant morocco case, by Cobden-Sanderson, with an autograph letter by him referring to it, dated 1891.

At London: Printed for John Smethwicke, 1611

* Third edition. The two previous issues—sometimes designated as "second" and "third" editions, are the same edition, some title-pages dated 1604 and others dated 1605, but there are no other variations excepting such as were made in passing through the press. They were probably issued late in 1604, some copies being dated in advance 1605. Very fine copy, measuring 6⅞ x 4⅞ inches.

2973. SHAKESPEARE. The History of Henrie the fourth, With the Battell at Shrewseburie, betweene the King, and Lord Henrie Percy, surnamed Henrie Hotspur of the North. With the humorous conceites of Sir John Falstaffe. Newly corrected by W. Shake-speare. Small 4to, orange levant morocco, mosaic border of maroon levant, centre ornament of a rose in green and red with gilt tooling, background stamped with small tools, doublure of orange levant morocco, border as on the outside, silk guards, gilt edges, in green levant morocco case, by Rivière, some leaves shaved close at the bottom removing a few catch-words (measuring 6¾ x 4⅞ inches). London: Printed by W. W. for Mathew Law, 1613

* The Fifth edition.

2974. SHAKESPEARE. The Tragedie of King Richard the Second: With new additions of the Parliament Sceane, and the deposing of King Richard. As it hath been lately acted by the Kings Maiesties servants, at the Globe. By William Shake-speare. Small 4to, with the original final blank leaf, maroon levant morocco, centre floral ornaments in gold on the sides, the intervals studded with gold dots, doublure with maroon levant morocco, silk guards, gilt edges, in a green levant morocco case, by Rivière. (Measuring 6 13/16 x 4⅞ inches.) At London: Printed for Mathew Law, 1615

* Fourth edition. Of this Edition there were two issues of the same sheets with a difference in the title-page only, though they have sometimes been called third and fourth editions.

2975. SHAKESPEARE. A Midsommer nights dreame. As it hath beene sundry times publikely acted, by the Right Honourable the Lord Chamberlaine his servants. Written by William Shakespeare. Small 4to, olive levant morocco, covered with rich floral and scroll tooling, doublure of red levant morocco, wide dentelle borders, gilt edges, in a brown levant morocco case, by Lortic. (Measuring 7 x 5 inches.)

Printed by James Roberts, 1600

* Second edition, but long believed to have been the first. It is now practically certain that it was issued later than 1600 the date which appears on the title.

SHAKESPEARE—THE FOUR FOLIOS.

2978. SHAKESPEARE. THE FIRST FOLIO. MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, & TRAGEDIES. Published according to the True Originall Copies. Folio, OLD RED STRAIGHT-GRAIN MOROCCO, gilt edges, with the Syston Park bookplate.

London: Printed by Isaac Iaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623

* A VERY FINE TALL COPY, believed to be the second largest known—with SOME ROUGH AND UNCUT EDGES, measuring 13⅜ x 8½ inches. It is in SOUND, CLEAN CONDITION THROUGHOUT and the paper has apparently never been washed or mended, while additional interest attaches to this copy on account of its dignified and handsome old red morocco binding. In the sales catalogue of the Syston Park Library it was attributed by by Sotheby to Roger Payne and Mr. Hoe also ascribed it to him in his own catalogue. The only defects in this otherwise splendid copy appear to be as follows:—the title is cut down and inlaid, some letters being supplied in pen and ink, the leaf of verses opposite also cut down and mounted, and a defect in the paper at sigs. bb.6 aaaz and aaa4 slightly injuring a few letters.

The only copy sold by auction in recent years which approaches the above in condition and size was the Van Antwerp copy, in 1907, which realized $18,000, but compared with the above it was less by ⅜ in. in height and ⅛ less in breadth. From the fact—above mentioned—that many of the leaves in this copy are uncut, at one of the three margins, it is probable NO LARGER COPY COULD BE FOUND, since it is not likely that a copy would have left the original binder's hands entirely uncut.

2979. SHAKESPEARE. THE SECOND FOLIO. Mr. William Shakespeare's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Originall Copies. The second Impression. Portrait on title. Folio, red levant morocco, with rich scroll designs, the intervals with small tools, gilt edges, in light brown morocco case, by Rivière.

London: Printed by Tho. Cotes for Robert Allot, and are to be sold at his shop at the signe of the Black Beare in Pauls Church-yard, 1632.

* THE LARGEST COPY ON RECORD, measuring 13⅜ x 9 inches and IN FINE AND PERFECT CONDITION. The usual errors of pagination are uncorrected, and in addition are the following errors, corrected in most other copies: A3 is misprinted A4; I2 is misprinted I3: Page 176 of the Merchant of Venice is misprinted 276: page 20 of King John is misprinted 18; page 49 of Henry IV is misprinted 45.

3054. SHIRLEY (JAMES). The Polititian, a Tragedy, Presented at Salisbury Court by her Majesties Servants. FIRST EDITION. Small 8vo, calf, gilt edges, by Zaehnsdorf.

London: Printed for Humphrey Moseley, 1655

* Professor Ward thinks that this play is suggestive of Shakespeare's "Hamlet."

3055. SHIRLEY (JAMES). (I.) Honoria and Mammon. Whereunto is added the Contention of Aiax and Ulisses, for the Armour of Achilles. (II.) The Contention of Ajax and Ulysses, for the Armor of Achilles. As It was nobly represented by young Gentlemen of quality. The very rare portrait of Shirley by Marshall inserted. 8vo, divided into two volumes, red levant morocco, gilt back, gilt edges, by Chambolle-Duru. London: Printed for John Crook, 1659.

* With the exception that two blanks are missing, a fine copy. Originally written as an interlude called "Contention for Honour and Riches," 4to, 1653, and enlarged to the present comedy.

3056. SHIRLEY (JAMES). The Triumph of Beautie. As it was personated by some young Gentlemen, etc. Lond. 1646: also in the same volume: Honoria and Mammon, London, 1659, and, The Contention of Ajax and Ulysses for the Armor of Achilles. London, n. d. 12mo, old sprinkled calf gilt.

London: Humphrey Moseley, 1646: John Crook, 1659

* The second part was issued with continuous pagination. First editions of The Triumph of Beautie and of The Contention of Ajax and Ulysses, and the second issue of Honoria and Mammon. The British Museum copy has the portrait of Shirley by Gaywood, but as no other copy is known in its original state with a portrait, it was probably inserted in that copy.

3057. [SHIRLEY (JAMES).] Andromana: or the Merchant's Wife. The scæne, Iberia. By J. S. FIRST EDITION. Small 4to, red levant morocco, gilt.

London, Printed for John Bellinger, 1660

3060. SHIRLEY (JAMES). The Dramatic Works and Poems of James Shirley, now first collected; with notes by the late William Gifford, Esq. and additional notes, and some account of Shirley and his writings, by the Rev. Alexander Dyce. 6 vols. 8vo, brown levant morocco gilt, gilt top, uncut, by Matthews. London: John Murray, 1833

* Large Paper copy. Portrait of Shirley by T. Lupton and two others inserted, one being the rare original portrait engraved by Marshall.

3061. SHIRREFS (ANDREW). Poems, chiefly in the Scottish Dialect (with glossary). Portrait of the author by Beugo after Caldwell. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, sage green levant morocco, three line panelled side, panels on back tooled with Scotch thistles, gilt over rough or uncut edges, by The Club Bindery. Edinburgh: Printed for the Author, 1790

* PRESENTATION COPY FROM THE AUTHOR, with inscription on half title;—"Presented by the Author to William Smith, Aberdeen 10th March 1791."

3062. SHORT (FRANK). On the Making of Etchings. By Frank Short. With 4 plates. 4to, vellum, gilt edges.

* One of 150 copies on Japan vellum. London, 1888

3063. SHOVEWELL (THOMAS). The Life and Adventures of Thomas Shovewell. 12mo, blue levant, gilt.
Chiswick: Charles Whittingham, 1824

* A note on fly-leaf reads "Privately Printed—Rare. Never saw another copy."

3064. SIBILET (THOMAS). Art Poëtique François, pour l'instruction des ieunes studieux, & encor' peu auancez en la Poësie Françoise. Auec le Quintil Horatian, sur la defense & illustration de la langue Françoise [par Charles Fontaine]. Small 8vo, citron morocco gilt, gilt edges, by Bauzonnet. From the Yemeniz collection.
Lyon: par Iean temporal, 1556

3065. SIDNEY (SIR PHILIP). The Countesse of Pembrokes Arcadia. Small 4to, green levant morocco, sides tooled in a Derome pattern, gilt edges, by W. Pratt. (Part of title is facsimile, and the second leaf of dedication and the first leaf of the text in excellent pen-and-ink facsimile; the first leaf of dedication is repaired).
London: Printed for William Ponsonbie, 1590

* First Edition. One of the rarest books in the English language, probably not over six perfect copies being known, and a few more imperfect. There is a slight difference in the imprint of the title page in some copies, most of them reading "Printed by John Windet for William Ponsonbie." Only two or three copies are known with the imprint omitting "Windet's name, one in Trinity College, Cambridge, another sold in 1909 by The Anderson Auction Company to a New York collector, and possibly one other.
The Birket Foster copy, with two of his book-plates inserted.

3066. SIDNEY (SIR PHILIP). The Defense of Poesie. By Sir Phillip Sidney, Knight. 4to, brown levant morocco, side ornaments, gilt edges, by Rivière.

London Printed for VVilliam Ponsonby. 1595

* Two editions of this work were issued in 1595, one by Henry Olney under the title "An Apologie for Poetrie," and the other by William Ponsonby, as above. It is uncertain which of the two was the earlier printed, for although Ponsonby's title was entered on the registers of the Stationers' Company six months before Olney's, there is no proof that he printed before Olney. According to Collier, Olney's edition was first; but he may not have known of the other.

In the Locker collection is a copy of the Ponsonby edition, described as unique. The title, "The Defence of Poesie," is given not only on the title-page, but also in the body of the work and as a headline. The signatures run from B to K2 only, and there are no preliminary leaves except the title. The present copy is Olney's edition with the Ponsonby title, signatures B to L3.

When this work was appended to the 1598 edition of the "Arcadia," the title was given as "The Defence of Poesie," and the Sonnets by Constable were omitted. Edward Wotton, whose name in the early editions is mentioned at the beginning of the work, was afterward designated by his initials only.

This Ponsonby title appears to have been overlooked, not only by Collier, but by Lowndes and Corser, and it is thought that only two or three copies of the work exist with it. The present copy contains the contemporary autograph of Lewiston Fitzjames, and some marginal notes in the same hand.

Collation: Three preliminary blank leaves, A1, A2, A3. Title with printer's device, A4 (verso blank). "An Apologie for Poetrie," B1—L3 in fours. Two final blank leaves. No pagination.

3067. SIDNEY (SIR PHILIP). The Covntesse of Pembrokes Arcadia. . . . Now the sixt time published, with some new Additions. Also a supplement of a defect in the third part of this Historie, by Sir W. Alexander. Title printed within elaborate woodcut border. Folio, sprinkled calf, gilt back and sides, gilt edges, by Rivière.

London: Printed by W. S. 1627

* Presumably the ninth edition, although the title reads, "the sixt time published." This edition contains the Sixth Book by Richard Beling, dated 1628.

3068. SIDNEY (SIR PHILIP). The Works of The Honourable Sir Philip Sidney, Kt. In Prose and Verse. In Three Volumes, Containing, I. The Countess of Pembroke's Arcadia. II. The Defense of Poesy. III. Astrophel and Stella. IV. The Remedy of Love; Sonnets, &c. V. The Lady of May. A Masque. VI. The Life of the Author. Portrait of Sidney engraved by Vertue, and 6 plates by Van der Gucht. Pine, &c. after L. Cheron. 3 vols. post 8vo, sprinkled calf gilt, gilt tops, by F. Bedford.

London: Printed for E. Taylor, &c., 1724-5

3071. SILLAR (DAVID). Poems. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, green straight-grain levant morocco gilt, gilt top, UNCUT, by The Club Bindery. Kilmarnock: Printed by John Wilson, 1789

* THE FIRST APPEARANCE OF A POEM BY BURNS, signed "R. B.";—

"For me I'm on Parnassus' brink
Rivan the words tae gar them clink
Whyles daez't wi' love, whyles daez't wi' drink
Wi' jads or masons," etc.

This poem of 48 lines is addressed to his "Auld Nibor," the author. Many other allusions are given to Burns, Allan Ramsay, Fergusson and other Scottish poets.

A FINE COPY. EXCEEDINGLY RARE IN UNCUT STATE and a worthy companion to the Kilmarnock Edition of Burns (Lot 557).

3072. SILLIMAN (BENJAMIN). A Tour to Quebec in the autumn of 1819. Second Edition. Illustrated. 8vo, half red morocco, uncut. London, 1822

3073. SILVAYN (A.). The Orator: Handling a hundred seuerall Discourses, in forme of Declamations: Some of the Arguments being drawne from Titus Liuius and other ancient Writers, the rest of the Authors owne inuention. . . . Written in French by Alexander Siluayn, and Englished by L.[azarus] P.[iot] [i.e., Anthony Munday]. Title within woodcut border. 4to, green levant morocco, gilt back and sides, gilt edges. London Printed by Adam Islip. 1596

3075. SIMCOE (LIEUTENANT-COLONEL). A Journal of the Operations of the Queen's Rangers, from the end of the year 1777, to the conclusion of the late Amerian War. By Lieutenant-Colonel Simcoe, Commander of that Corps. 10 folded plates of plans. 4to, ORIGINAL BOARDS, TOTALLY UNCUT, with paper label in morocco solander case.

Exeter: Printed for the Author, 1787

* THE EXCESSIVELY RARE ORIGINAL EDITION, printed for private distribution only. Menzies' copy which was described as "the largest copy yet heard from," measured 8¾ x 10½, while the above is 8¾ x 11½. According to a note on fly-leaf it once belonged to SIR HENRY CLINTON.

"First, Sir Henry Clinton's 1794
Then his son Henry
Then his brother's. W. H. C. 1830."

3076. [SIMMS (W. GILMORE).] Atalantis: a Story of the Sea. FIRST EDITION. Post 8vo, half green levant morocco, gilt top, uncut. Philadelphia, 1848

3079. SKEEN (WILLIAM). Early Typography. 8vo, half roxburgh, gilt top, uncut. Columbo: Ceylon, 1872

3080. SKELTON (JOHN). Here after foloweth a lytell boke, whiche hath to name, why come ye nat to courte, compyled by mayster Skelton poete Laureate. 16mo, red levant morocco, sides richly tooled in a scroll design, gilt edges, in a maroon levant morocco box, by Mercier [Colophon]. Imprinted at london by me Richard kele dwelling in the powltry at the longe shop vnder saynt myldredes chyrch. n. d.

* Extremely rare, only four copies being on record, the British Museum, the Huth, the Locker-Lampson, and the present, which was formerly in the Ashburnham library. There seems to have been more than one issue, as the Huth copy has the reverse of the title blank, while in this it contains a woodcut, presumably of Cardinal Wolsey and Skelton. The above agrees with the Huth and British Museum copies in having no blank leaf at end. Very few of Kele's books are dated, but as he printed between 1545 and 1552 it was no doubt issued between those years.

[London: William Machlinia, ca. 1482]

* VERY FINE AND PERFECT COPY, IN THE ORIGINAL STAMPED BINDING WITH CLASPS, BY WILLIAM MACHLINIA (lower side restored). The first printed collection of English Statutes, and remarkable for containing two statutes not printed in any other edition: viz., 2 Richard II, Cap. 7 and 8. There are some valuable fragments enclosed in an envelope and laid in the book which were once used as fly-leaves for the binding. They form a nearly complete copy of the first edition of "STATUTA APUD WESTMONASTERIUM REGIS RICARDI TERCII," printed by William Machlinia about 1480. Although in poor condition, this is in itself a very remarkable little work of extreme rarity. It consists of signature a, 8 leaves, the first being a blank, and signature b 2 leaves (a complete copy should contain 16 leaves). The Spencer copy is much damaged by damp, and wants one printed and one blank leaf.

3138. STEELE (SIR RICHARD). The Funeral: or, Grief A-la-mode. a Comedy. As it is Acted at The Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, by His Majesty's Servants. 4to, half green levant morocco, gilt edges, by Roger de Coverly.

London: Printed for Jacob Tonson, 1702

* FIRST EDITION. With the half title, but lacking the Prologue. From the Grant collection, with his bookplate.

3139. STEELE (SIR RICHARD). The Tender Husband; or, the Accomplish'd Fools. A Comedy. As it is Acted at the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane. By Her Majesty's Servants. 4to, red levant morocco, gilt edges, by David.

London: Printed for Jacob Tonson, 1705

* First Edition, with the leaf of advertisements at end. As this play was first produced in April, 1705, the date of the first edition as 1703 in Biographia Dramatica is obviously incorrect.

3140. STEELE (SIR RICHARD). The Crisis: or, a Discourse Representing, from the most Authentick Records, The just Causes of the Happy Revolution: and The several Settlements of the Crowns of England and Scotland on Her Majesty; etc. First Edition. 4to, red levant morocco, gilt, uncut, by David. London, 1714

3141. STEELE (SIR RICHARD—Editor). Poetical Miscellanies, consisting of Original Poems and Translations. By the best Hands. Frontispieces by Du Guernier after Lageurre. Small 8vo, light brown levant morocco, gilt tooled, gilt edges, by The Club Bindery.

London: Printed for Jacob Tonson, MDCCXIV.

* First Edition, with misprint in the date on the title-page, the leaves of contents following the dedication, and a final blank leaf.

Contains the first version of Pope's "Wife of Bath her Prologue, from Chaucer"; "The Arrival of Ulysses in Ithaca," etc. Other contributors are Steele, Parnell, Tickell, William Harrison, and Gay.

3142. STEELE (SIR RICHARD). The Dramatic Works of Steele. Containing The Funeral, The Tender Husband, The Lying Lover, The Conscious Lovers. Portrait by Vertue and frontispiece to each play by Van der Gucht, etc. 12mo, polished calf, gilt edges, by Bedford. London, 1760

Franckenfort am Meyn: Christian Egenoissen, 1535

* Pages 103-107 contain a summary of Columbus and Vespucci's voyages and discoveries.

3144. STEINLEN (THÉOPHILE ALEXANDRE). Contes a Sara. Dessins de Steinlen gravés sur bois par Desmoulins. Square 8vo, half blue levant morocco, mosaic back, uncut, by Carayon. Paris: L. Carteret et Cie., 1898

3146. STERNE (LAURENCE). The Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman. FIRST EDITION. Frontispiece in vol. 3. 9 vols. 12mo, calf, gilt backs, gilt edges, by Bedford. [London:] 1760–1767

* Volumes 5, 7, and 9 have the autograph signature of the author. Presumed to be first editions throughout, but as vols. 1–3 are without imprint, it is not certain whether they are the York editions or not. Vol. 5 is the only one with half-title.

3147. STERNE (LAURENCE). A Sentimental Journey through France and England. By Mr. Yorick. Copperplate at p. 38, vol. 2. 2 vols. 8vo, original calf, gilt backs, in a straight-grain morocco solander case.
London: Printed for T. Becket, 1768

* FIRST EDITION. LARGE PAPER. A fine copy, with the very rare leaf of "Advertisement" (upper and lower edges uncut), in which "The author begs leave to acknowledge to his Subscribers, that they have a further claim upon him for Two Volumes more than these delivered to them now."
The volumes were never issued.

3148. STERNE (LAURENCE). Letters from Yorick to Eliza. Small 8vo, green levant morocco, tooled sides, dentelle borders, gilt top, uncut, by The Club Bindery.
London: Printed for G. Kearsly, 1775

* First Edition, with the half-title.

3149. STERNE (LAURENCE). Original Letters of the late Reverend Mr. Laurence Sterne. Never before published. 12mo, brown morocco, gilt, ENTIRELY UNCUT.
London, 1788

3150. STERNE (LAURENCE). Autograph Letter Signed 2 pp. 4to, Toulouse, March 29, 1763, with leaf of address (blank) from which seal is torn.

* To Foley, of the firm of Pachaud & Foley, bankers, and Sterne's warm friend, mentioning Tristram Shandy. "How does Tristram do? You say in yrs to him—faith but so so: but the worst of human maladies is Poverty—tho' that's a 2'd Lye,—for Poverty of Spirit is worse than Poverty of Purse—but I enclose you a remedy for the one, a Draught of 3000 Livres for which I insist upon a Rescription by the very return, Or I'll send you & all yr Commissaries with You to all the Devils in hell—I don't hear they have tasted of one fleshy Banquer all this Lent—You will make an excellent Grille—Panchaud, they can make nothing of him but Bullion," etc.
Sterne's letters to his bankers were all pitched in the familiar key of his postscript: "I have not 5 Louis to vapour with in this Land of Coxcombs."

* Privately printed. The present copy was thought to be the only perfect one, but there is one other, according to Mr. Huth's catalogue, Mr. J. Dunn Gardner's copy, which was sold at auction in 1854. The present copy is large, crisp and clean, and was formerly in the library of Dr. P. Bliss, who wrote on the fly-leaf: "This copy is the most complete I have ever seen: it contains four pages more than Mr. Malone's copy in the Bodleian" (unpaged at the end). It also contains the folding pages between 70-71 and 110-111. The copy in the "Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica" in 1815 lacked these folding leaves, and also the two (1* and *2) at the end, which are also missing in the three copies in the British Museum. At page 125 a second part begins, preceded by an engraving by Marshall, which appears to represent a double hill of Parnassus, from the center of which issues a spring. Inserted is a rare contemporary portrait of the author, by Hollar.

DECLARATION OF FORMER PASSAGES AND PROCEEDINGS BETWIXT THE ENGLISH and the Narrowganſets, with their confederates, Wherein the grounds and iuſtice of the enſuing warre are opened and cleared.

Publiſhed, by order of the Commiſſioners for the united Colonies: At Boſton the 11 of the ſixth moneth

THE moſt conſiderable part of the Engliſh Colonies profeſſe they came into theſe parts of the world with deſire to advance the kingdome of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and to injoye his precious Ordinances with peace, and (to his praiſe they confeſſe) he hath not failed their expectation hitherto, they have found ſafety, warmth and refreſhing under his wing to the ſatisfaction of their ſoules. But they know, and have conſidered that their Lord & maſter is King of righteouſnes and peace, that he gives anſwerable lawes, and caſts his ſubjects into ſuch a mould and frame; that (in their weak meaſure) they may hold forth his vertues in their courſe and carriage, not only with the nations of Europe, but with the barbarous natives of this wildernes. And accordingly both in their treaties & converſe they have had an awfull reſpect to divine rules, endeavouring to walk uprightly and inoffenſively, & in the midſt of many injuries and inſolencies to exerciſe much patience and long ſuffering towards them.

The Pequots grew to an exceſſe of violence and outrage, and proudly turned aſide from all wayes of juſtice & peace, before the ſword was drawn or any hoſtile attempts made againſt them. During theſe warrs, & after the Pequots were ſubdued, the Engliſh Colonies were carefull to continue and eſtabliſh peace with the reſt of the Indians, both for the preſent & for poſterity, as by ſeveral treaties with the Narrowganſet & Mohiggin Sagamores may appeare: which treaties for a while were in ſome good meaſure duly obſerved by all the Indians, but of late the Narrowganſets & eſpecially the Niantecks their confederates have many wayes injuriouſly broke & violated the ſame by entertaining and keeping amongſt them, not only many of the Pequot nation, but ſuch of them as have had their hands in the blood & murder of the Engliſh, ſeizing and poſſeſſing at leaſt a part of the Pequots 3499. WITHER (GEORGE).] The Great Assises Holden in Parnassus by Apollo and His Assessors: at which are Arraigned—Mercurius Britanicus, Mercurius Aulicus, Mercurius Civicus, The Scout, The writer of Diurnalls, The Intelligencer, The writer of Occurrences, The writer of Passages, The Post, The Spye, The writer of weekly Accounts, The Scottish Dove, &c. Small 4to, calf gilt, gilt over rough edges, by C. Lewis.

London: Printed by Richard Cotes for Edward Husbands, 1645.

* The Heber copy. A curious and amusing poem in which the newspapers are arraigned and condemned before Apollo and a jury. George Wither was foreman of the jury, and from this fact and from a reference in the poem to Wither's "Abuses Stript and Whipt" it is inferred that he was the author. The other jurors included Davenant, Sylvester, Drayton, Beaumont, Shakespeare, Fletcher, Massinger, Haywood, etc. Among the judges were Sir Francis Bacon, Sir Philip Sidney, Erasmus and Grotius, and Ben Jonson was the jailer. The publication was followed by severe criticism by the newspapers, which probably deterred Wither from admitting its authoriship.

3500. WITHER (GEORGE). Vox Pacifica: a Voice tending to The Pacification of God's wrath; and offering those Propositions, or Conditions, by the acceptation, and performance whereof, in some good measure, a firme and continuing Peace may be obtained, etc. FIRST EDITION. Woodcut map of England, Ireland and Scotland. 8vo, red morocco, gilt, gilt edges, by Rivière. London: Printed for T. Ratcliffe, 1655

3502. WITHER (GEORGE). Speculum Speculativum: or, a Considering-Glass; being an Inspection Into the present and late sad Condition Of these Nations; With some cautional expressions made thereon, Immediately after his Majesties Restauration: To preserve in himself and others a Christian Obedience to God's various Dispensations. Hereby also are some Glimmerings discovered Of what will probably ensue hereafter, etc. Small 8vo, brown levant morocco, gilt and blind-tooled sides, gilt edges, by Rivière.

London . . . there imprinted the same year, 1660

* FIRST ISSUE OF THE FIRST EDITION, with the "Errata" on page 166.

Three impressions were printed in 1660, with slight variations. The present is known as the "Be" and "Me" issue, as those words in the dedication are spelled with one "e" instead of two.

3503. [WITHER (GEORGE).] Vox & Lacrimæ Anglorum: or, The True English-mens Complaints, To their Representatives in Parliament. Humbly tendered to their
